The Farmington girls track team d Plymouth Canton well-scouted

The Farmington girst track teals had Plymouth Canton well-scouted Thursday.

Canton, leaders of the Western Lakes Western Division, had its dual meet win streak stopped Tuesday by rival Plymouth Salem. Salem took charge of that meet by exploiting Canton in the 2-mile run.

Farmington successfully deployed the same tactic Thursday and defeated the Chiefs 71-57.

"It was back and forth throughout the meet," said Farmington coach Jerry Young. "We wanted to avoid getting into a mile relay battle with them so we loaded up in the 2 mile. We needed a first and we got a first and third. That sewed things up for us."

Nicole Jelley won the 2 mile in 12-50.

Alyse Fortune was the big gun for the Falcons. She won three individual events and anchored the winning 440-yard relay (53.8). Fortune won the long jump (15-9%), the 100 dash (12.1) and the 220 (27.3).

Jenny Lindbert also had a nice meet.

Jenny Lindbert also had a nice meet. She won the mile (5:43.0) and ran legs of both the mile relay (4:30.7) and 2 mile relay (10:15.0).

Other Falcon winners were Lori Casaroll in the 330 low hurdies (49.8) and Anna Quenneville in the 830 (23.26.)

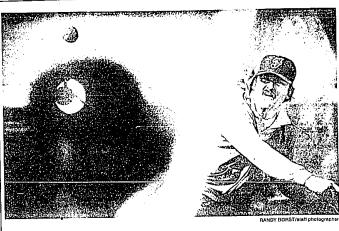

Canton got a double win from Hollie Ivey in both the shot put (32-11) and discus (101-5). Angle Miller won the high jump (4-9), Cheri Remer the 110 high hurdies (17.7) and Tricla Carney the (40 (1:03.9) for the Chiefs. Canton (6-2) got a first in the 880 relay (1:57.4). The Falcons, who are in second place behind Plymouth Salem in the Lakes Division, are 6-2 on the season.

NORTH FARMINGTON took no prisoners Thursday at Redford Thurston.

The Raiders won 11 of 16 events walloping their Northwest Suburban League rivals 91-37.

Nancy Cothran and Diana Richet each won a pair of events for North. Cothran won the shot put (29-8%) and the discus (60-84). Richet won the long jump (14-8) and the 220-yard dash (29.22).

Other North winners were: Tammy Spengler in the 100 (13.0), Julie Garczynski in the 440 (1:02.8), Carolyn Alkon in the 880 (2:34.1), Barb Zeno in the Marian are 5-1 overall, 5-0 in the conference.

Falcon coaching change

Tony Wenson, above, was replaced as the head baseball coach at Farmington High School after the Falcons lost to Farmington Harrison Wednecday, Farmington athletic director Ron Holland said that Wenson was having difficulty juggling both his full-time job and coaching du-ties. Junior varsity coach Kevin Kansman has been appointed head varsity coach for the re-mainder of the season.

IGNASIAK'S EFFORT kept Michigan in front 10-8. The Wolverines added two runs in the seventh, and despite surrendering a single and a homer in the bottom of the laning, the freshman hurler got the save in a 12-10 triumph. Ignasiak got a start on Sunday and responded with five strong limings, MSU managed one run on four hits and two walks while striking out if two times in his five-laning sith, which resulted in a 7-1 Michigan victory and Ignasiak's second victory of the weekend. "That had to be the best two days of my life," he said afterwards. "Especially coming against MSU, our big rivilas." But don't be misled: ignasiak has bad a few other big days for the Wolvines. He currently boasts a 6-1 record and has three saves. Its: pitched 44's innings and allowed 43 bits, 22 walks and 17 earned runs while striking out 33.
