

Hawk 9 trips Farmington

Besides the hitting of Brian Smolinski, the Farmington Harrison baseball team has had little to cheer about this year.

But, the Hawks atoned somewhat for its mediocre season Wednesday by thrashing intra-city rival Farmington 9-0.

"One of our goals was to win the city title this year," said Harrison coach John Herrington. "The kids were fired up to play. We're looking forward to playing North now."

The Hawks will take on North Farmington May 22 — the winner earning bragging rights in the city for 1985.

Mike Inch shut down the Falcons on only three hits in seven innings. He fanned eight and walked three.

Harrison, meanwhile, tagged Dave Casaroli for 11 hits. Brad Rounds led the attack with three hits. John Miller knocked in a pair of runs with a double and Smolinski contributed one hit and three runs.

The Hawks are 6-8 on the season. Farmington, meanwhile, has changed head coaches. Kevin Kastrun, the junior varsity coach, has replaced Tony Wenson at the helm. Wenson had a job conflict.

And the Falcons awarded their new coach with a victory in his debut Friday.

day, The Falcons, behind the pitching of Steve Howell, defeated Livonia Stevenson 4-3.

Chris Green's solo homer triggered a three-run third inning for Farmington (6-9).

GARDEN CITY 6, N. FARMINGTON 4: North had Garden City on the ropes in the sixth inning Friday but pitcher Todd Webb, like a gritty fighter, punched his team out of trouble and North out of the game.

The Raiders scored twice in the sixth to take a 4-2 lead in the key Northwest Suburban game and still had runners on second and third with nobody out.

But Webb struck out the next three batters.

Garden City rallied for four runs in the bottom of the sixth off Bob Chwalki and went on to victory.

Eric Engel had three hits for North. Chwalki and Tom Cotter each had a pair of hits and two RBI.

Jeff Buglione had three hits and three RBI to pace GC.

Redford Thurston is now alone atop the NSL with a 5-3 record. North, Garden City, John Glenn and Redford Union are a game back.

North is 10-4 overall. Garden City is 11-7.

Harrison softball win big, lose big

The Farmington Harrison softball team found out the hard way that whatever goes around comes around.

On Wednesday, Harrison took advantage of a young and injury-riddled Farmington team for a 15-1 victory. On Friday, the show was on the other foot in a 20-0 loss to state-ranked Southfield-Lathrup.

Dawn Culbertson shackled Farmington on just two hits in the five-inning mercy-rule shortened contest Wednesday. She walked five and struck out three.

Harrison didn't exactly blister the ball off Falcon hurler Lisa Edwards. But the Hawks took advantage of 13 walks.

Dana Dinkins had a pair of hits and three RBI. Kim George had a three-run double and scored three times.

On Friday the Hawks met Heidi Parent. The Lathrup pitcher is 16-1 on the season and she blanked the Hawks on three hits (one each by Diana Raddatz, Dinkins and Cheryl Pavy).

Lathrup was aided by 14 walks and a pair of hit batsmen.

The Hawks are 5-9 overall, 4-5 in the Western Lakes.

Farmington, winners of just one game this season, lost again Friday. Livonia Stevenson topped the Falcons 11-3.

GARDEN CITY 2, N. FARMINGTON 1: Same story here. Another well-pitched, well-played game by North Farmington, but another loss.

Suzette Greenberg yielded just three hits to Garden City, all three in the second inning. A two-run single by Mike Gorak scored the two runs.

North (2-6) rallied in the top of the sixth. Libby Shaw and Leah Damiani singled. They each moved up on a passed ball. Lisa Mumford then scored Shaw with a sacrifice fly. But the rally ended there, one run shy.

Shelly Malone gave up three hits and struck out seven. Garden City is 11-2 on the season.

Raiders take city kick title

North Farmington can now officially lay claim to being the best soccer team in the Farmington Public School District.

The Raiders clinched the city's mythical championship with a 3-1 triumph over Farmington Friday.

Jean Anzlovar, Mo O'Brien and Heather McPhillips scored for North. Lori Dingle got the lone marker for Farmington.

North has been getting fantastic play from its fullbacks in recent weeks. Sandy Sprague has been averaging 30 steps a game for North along the back row. On Friday, Jody Gerta, according to coach Cathy Cole, "was like a brickwall" stopping Farmington's breakaway chances.

That type of play has made life much more pleasant for goalkeeper Brooks Landback.

North (6-1) outshot Farmington (1-10) 24-5.

The Raiders lost to Livonia Bentley on Wednesday 4-1. Terri Kaltz scored the lone goal for North. Kim Peterson scored three goals for state-power Bentley.

Farmington lost to No. 1-ranked Livonia Stevenson on Wednesday, 8-0.

FARMINGTON HILLS MERCY, the best team in Farmington, whipped Grosse Pointe Star of the Sea 10-0 on Friday to wrap up the regular season Catholic League title.

Annette Ruggiero scored three goals for Mercy. Ruggiero is Observerland's leading goal scorer with 24 markers.

Colleen Rafferty and Amy Stock scored twice for the Marlins. Kathy Clement, Renee Bibeau and Kristen Kusisto each scored once.

Mercy, 7-0 in the league and 9-2 overall, will play a state regional match at home Monday against Dearborn. The Marlins will open the Catholic League playoffs Wednesday at home against Marian. Both games will start at 4 p.m.

FARMINGTON HARRISON is still seeking its first win of the season. The Hawks were bounced from the state playoffs by Livonia Ladywood Thursday, 6-0.

PHYSICAL EXAMS FOR ATHLETES SET

Physical examinations for all athletes (male and female) in the Farmington Public School District will be administered by staff physicians from Botstford and Providence hospitals Thursday, May 30, at North Farmington High School.

Middle school athletes (1985-1986) have their exams 5:30-7 p.m. High school athletes will go 7-9 p.m.

The cost is $5.

Students must obtain a pre-participation sports examination form from their coach or principal's office. The form is to be filled out by the student and parent or guardian prior to the exam.

Without the form on file at the school, students will not be allowed to participate in athletics.
