cable connection

By Lark Samouellen
special writer

Our senior adults keep Channel 12 schedule humming this week... subject matters from entertainment with "Musical Madness" to fashion with "Farmington Community Center Seniors Fashion Show" to serious conversations with Inherited Wisdom are featured.

Congratulations to Dean Cobb and the first "Studio 10" television crew of students. Look for "Take 10" on our schedule and enjoy the introduction to the television facilities at North Farmington High.

Welcome to three new interns with the Southwestern Oakland Cable Commission - Kathleen Maher, Mark Robinson and Lynn Laskey.

Maher and Robinson are producing a bi-monthly local news feature program entitled "Midweek Journal." Send your press releases to them in care of

S.W.O.C.C.

Laskey is producing a new series entitled "Sports in Motion." You will enjoy the benefits of a half hour of instruction for a variety of sports. He would be happy to accept suggestions for guests.

Remember Channel 12 is for you. Therefore, call us with your suggestions at the Southwestern Oakland Cable Commission at 474-1017.

Ball promoted to media coordinator

Timothy J. Ball of Farmington Hills has been appointed to the newly created position of coordinator of news media relations at Harper-Grace Hospitals, a major Detroit health care organization.

In his new position Ball will be the primary contact for news reporters with Harper and Grace Hospitals and with their other health care enterprises.

For the previous four years he had been a public relations representative for the hospitals. His promotion was announced by Frank Bredell, director of public relations for Harper-Grace. Ball holds a master's degree from Central Michigan University in Virginia Beach, Va., and a bachelor's degree from Central Michigan University.
