

Leading the Boston Pops

The 100th birthday season for the Boston Pops Orchestra marks John Williams' sixth as conductor. The orchestra will give a concert at Meadow Brook Festival at 8 p.m. Friday. The Boston Pops tradition began at Boston's Music Hall on July 11, 1885, and continues throughout the year. One of the highlights for Bostonians is the annual July 4 concert on the Esplanade in Boston which drew some 250,000 listeners this year. Williams, a much-lauded composer, won an Oscar for best original score for a motion picture, for "E.T."

"Saturn 3" (1980), 8 p.m. Friday on Ch. 4. Originally 88 minutes. TV time slot: 120 minutes.

No one raves about "Saturn 3," but there are a few things undeniably appealing about it. One is its futuristic premise about an outpost on one of Saturn's moons. The lifestyles of the outpost's inhabitants — played by Kirk Douglas and Farrah Fawcett — are idyllic until a serpent, in the form of a robot named Hector, enters their Eden. Hector and the inhabitants eventually clash, of course, but ideas clash first. That's one nice thing about "Saturn 3" — Ideas and action take precedent over special effects. Yet the special effects, which are used most economically, are quite convincing. It's also nice to see Fawcett appear comfortably convincing in one of her first grown-up roles after she abandoned the bubblegum-brained "Charley's Angels." Harvey Keitel co-stars.

Rating: $2.95.

"The Dirty Dozen" (1967), 8 p.m. Friday on Ch. 50. Originally 150 minutes. TV time slot: 180 minutes.

Neither Lee Marvin, Charles Bronson, Jim Brown, John Cassavetes, Donald Sutherland, Telly Savalas, Clint Walker, Trini Lopez, Richard Meeke, Ernest Borgnine, Robert Ryan, Ralph Meeker, George Kennedy or anyone else gives a bad performance in the "Dirty Dozen," which is one reason it's so good. It's also funny, poignant, action-packed

"White Line Fever" (1975), 1 p.m. Sunday on Ch. 50. Originally 92 minutes. TV time slot: 120 minutes.

Here's a much-overlooked work that revenge-movie buffs won't want to miss. Jan-Michael Vincent stars as an independent trucker battling corrupt big shots in this emotionally charged, manipulative movie. Sometimes manipulative movies are too strident or preachy, but "White Line Fever" nicely mixes in a love interest and plenty of action. Key Lens (of whom we don't see nearly enough) and Slim Pickens co-star.

"Not with My Wife You Don't" (1966), 1 Monday night on Ch. 50. Originally 118 minutes. TV time slot: 137 minutes.

This silly service comedy has nothing to recommend it except its cast. George C. Scott, Tony Curtis, Virna Lisi and Carroll O'Connor are simply fun to watch, although you shouldn't have to suffer through the whole movie to see their best hits. In other words, check it out during commercials of whatever else you're watching at the time.
