

Mormons welcome mission president

Missionaries of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, assigned to the Dearborn Michigan Mission, greeted newly assigned president Heber D. Perrett and his wife Carol this week.

They arrived from Modesto, Calif., to head the mission at 35505 State St., Farmington.

The mission serves the lower-eastern-half of the state through the 110 proselyting missionaries.

Perrett, 47, has served recently as a Sunday School teacher, as president of the Ben Oregon Stake, stake president's counselor, high counselor, stake missionary and bishop's counselor. From 1957 to 1959 he served in the North Carolina States Mission. He attended Brigham Young University, majoring in business administration, and is a self-employed businessman.

Heber and Carol Perrett

His wife has served as Relief Society secretary, counselor in a stake, Young Women's president, stake Relief Society board member, Sunday School teacher and primary in-service leader.

They are parents of six children, three of whom have accompanied them to their new residence.

President Perrett replaces President John Milne who has returned to Canada.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints has no professional clergy. Lay members are chosen as regional and local officers and receive no money.

Troubleshooters call volunteers

The Troubleshooters of Channel 2, WJBK-TV are looking for additional volunteers to handle the load of extra calls generated by On-Air Troubleshooter reporter, Dan Williams.

The Troubleshooters Bureau, a dispute-mediation and referral center, is manned by trained volunteers who assist callers with a wide variety of concerns.

Full-time homemakers offered 2-part workshop

The Continuum Center of Oakland University announces a new program titled "Especially For You: The Woman Who Works Full Time At Home."

Continuum Center Director, Elinor B. Waters describes this program as "a way to overcome the isolation and lack of stimulation that often accompany full-time mothering and homemaking."

"It's also a chance to do the simple things," she says. "Things like making new friends, sharing problems and solutions and alleviating your day with some new ideas."

The workshop will present the opportunity for participants to think about themselves, to have a sense of their own self-worth, to identify their skills and strengths, to think about their own personal likes and dislikes about their present lifestyle and to do some investigating regarding their future.

This two-session program will run from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Thursdays, Aug. 8 and 15 in Birmingham Unitarian Church, Lone Pine and Woodward, Bloomfield Hills.

Participants are asked to bring a brown bag lunch. Child care will be available. Registration is made by calling the Continuum Center at 379-3533. Fee for the program is $35.

Diabetics invited to classes

A series of six diabetes classes will be given beginning at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 1 in Oakland County Health Division's South office, 27725 Greenfield Road, Southfield.

The classes are for adult diabetics and their family members. They are taught by a public health nurse and a registered dietitian. Topics that will be discussed include the nature of the disease, dietary management, medications and suggestions for coping with everyday problems.

There are no fees charged for these classes. However, registration is requested by calling 858-1280.

WHY DIDN'T THE INJECTION WORK?

As you may know, physicians undertake joint injections to provide immediate treatment for inflamed joints. You may have received a joint injection but found no relief from pain. Why didn't the therapy succeed?

One answer is that the injection didn't reach the correct area. In sticky persons in particular, it is difficult to identify the landmarks of bone and muscle which guide the physicians to the knee or shoulder joint. If the needle failed to reach that location, then the medicine injected is not likely to take effect.

Another cause of failure is that the arthritis flare is more intense than you or your physician appreciate. In such instances the usual amount of medicine won't be sufficient to quell the flare of inflammation.

Do not be discouraged if an injection has failed. Often, a return to this therapy will be successful. If such is the case, you will be spared the need to undertake medication that is potentially more toxic and possibly less successful in relieving your pain and immobility.
