

Englishman wins Roadrunner plaque

In his second race of the day, Englishman Malcolm East, 31, breezed to victory in Saturday evening's second Annual Roadrunner Classic in Livonia, outgunning Westland's Tobin Jones with a time of 24:10.

The Chestnut Hill, Mass., resident who placed 11th (2:11) in the 1981 Boston Marathon was runner-up to former Boston Marathon winner Greg Meyer in Jackson's Cascade run with a 30:05 10-kilometer clocking Saturday morning. Meyer ran a 29:55.

Jones, winner of last year's Roadrunner Classic, completed the eight-kilometer course in 24:25.

Michigan Women's Runner of the Year Ella Willis captured the glory for the women, placing 37th overall in 28:41. Like East, she competed earlier in the day in Jackson and was crowned with a laurel wreath after running to victory in her evening bid. Willis, East, and the top three finishers in male and female age divisions were given handcrafted, engraved wooden plaques during a post-race awards ceremony and party on the grounds of the Livonia Family Y at Stark and Lyndon roads.

"I FELT a little tired after Jackson, so I ran with Tobin Jones through three miles and then took off," said East, who races on a full-time, international basis for New Balance racing club.

"I'm glad it was a fast and accurate course after running an inaccurate long course in the morning," added the Englishman.

Former Free Press International Marathon winner Cindy Barber was the women's runner-up. Rebounding from injury, Barber clocked a 31:34 on the flat, paved route.

Wheeler's Rich McAvoy and Russ Monroe took first place honors.

Gilles captures national crown

By Chris McCosky staff writer

A milestone was reached in the amateur tennis career of Plymouth's Chris Gilles last weekend.

Gilles, a highly-ranked amateur and an all-Big 10 No. 1 singles player at the University of Wisconsin, won the Women's USTA National Amateur Hardcourt Championship in Cleveland.

Gilles and her University of Wisconsin teammate Cathy Van Felt also teamed to win the doubles championship. It was the first national title for Gilles.

"The funny thing is that I didn't really play that well," Gilles said. "I played just good enough to win in every match. I was not really impressed with myself at all."

"In front of a crowd of nearly 3,000 and a regional television audience, Gilles knocked off Libby Brenden of Dallas, 3-6, 6-2, 6-1 in the final. "I'll tell you what I was proud of," said Gilles' father Brian. "The place was packed, and the match was on TV and Chris didn't let any of that bother her. She didn't seem nervous at all."

If there has been a flaw in Gilles' tennis game in recent years, it was a tendency to get overly-nervous before big matches.

"I wasn't nervous at all," Gilles said. "I just blocked everything out of mind, the crowd, the TV. I knew that I had more experience than my opponent did. I just concentrated on my game."

Some added maturity was afforded Gilles in July when she placed second in the USTA Women's National Clay-court Championships in Pittsburgh. She lost in the final to NCAA champion Gretchen Rush, 6-3, 6-1.

"I thought that in Pittsburgh I was a lot more nervous than I was this weekend (in Cleveland)," Gilles said.

GILLES MAY have felt like she was on top of her game, but her opponents wouldn't believe it.

She defeated Sandra Meiser in the first round, 6-1, 6-0. Amy Tarleton was her second victim, 6-3, 6-0. Gilles dropped Pennsylvania's Kelly Ervin in the quarterfinals, 6-4, 6-1.
