

Tough times atop MSHL

By Chris McCosky
staff writer

Tough times have befallen the Midwest Summer Hockey League's conference leaders.

The Bulldogs (5-3), who had led the Tex Conference most of the season, finally snapped a three-game losing streak Sunday night. The skid allowed the red-hot Wolverines to sneak past them.

The Wildcats, winners of their first five contests, are in the throes of a three-game skid. Still, the Cats remain atop the Lakes Conference heading into the final week of the regular season.

Rick Teeto, who plays collegiate hockey for NCAA champion RPI, scored four goals Sunday night to lead the Bulldogs past the Broncos 9-5. Mike Stahley, who plays in the AHL at Springfield, added a pair of goals.

For the Broncos (4-4), Pat Marody of U-M Dearborn notched the hat-trick.

THE FRONT-RUNNING Wolverines (5-2) scored five straight goals in the final two periods to oust the Wildcats Sunday.

Rob Brown, Tony Byers and Don Krussman each scored a pair of goals for the Wolves. Krussman is the only player that has yet to lose a game in the MSHL. He began the season with the Bulldogs and the team was 4-0. He was traded to the Wolves who have since won four straight.

The Wildcats' woes continued on Monday, blowing a 3-1 lead and losing to the lowly Spartans (2-4-1), 5-3. Tim McDermott scored a pair of goals for the Spartans, John Galardi and Bob Nagy each scored a goal and added two assists. Livonia Churchill product Ed Shepler also scored.

Livonia Stevenson's Chris Tancill, Paul Dolan and Greg Stecman scored for the Cats.

The Lakers (3-5), after losing to the Falcons 10-3 on Sunday, came back with an 8-5 win over the Huskies (3-4-1) Monday. Farmington resident Jason Tratochud, at 15 the youngest player in the MSHL, scored three goals to pace the Lakers.

DAVE BRAMBLE, the league's leading scorer, tallied twice and added a pair of assists for the Huskies.

The Falcons (2-2-2) got three goals from Mark Hartman and two from Tim Oborn in their win over the Lakers Monday.

The MSHL, sponsored by Little Caesars and Chrysler-Plymouth, features players from pro, college and high school levels as well as the best players from the Observer & Eccentric area. The league is housed at the Plymouth Cultural Center.

Glantzman gets OU SID post

Andy Glantzman has been named sports information director at Oakland University. It was announced last week by OU athletic director Paul Hartzman.

Glantzman, 36, comes to OU after working six years in the sports information office at the University of Detroit. He served three years as a graduate assistant and three years as a full-time assistant while at U-D.

The Brooklyn, N.Y., native now living in Southfield is a graduate of St. John's (N.Y.) University. He earned his master's degree in business administration from U-D last August.

Glantzman succeeds Stan Blackford, whose contract at OU was not renewed. Glantzman officially starts his new position Aug. 5.
