

At the U.F. the buck stops

here

Comprehensive services
for young, single parents.
$1,304,268 (12.6%)

here

Family and individual
counseling.
$5,122,952 (10.2%)

here

Physical activity, social and cultural recreation programs.
$4,015,315 (8.0%)

here

Medical research,
patient services,
medical care and
rehabilitation services.
$5,971,008 (11.9%)

here

Disaster services,
emergency shelter,
financial, food and
legal services.
$2,896,595 (5.8%)

here

Special education,
special employment
assistance.
$1,938,046 (3.9%)

here

Information and referral
services, neighborhood
development and
organization, volunteer
development and
community planning.
$4,071,479 (8.1%)

here

Community health
education, disease
detection, health
program development
and coordination.
$3,603,781 (7.2%)

here

Campaign and year-
round administrative expenses of the United Foundation.
$4,566,180 (9.0%)

here

Unclassified services which do not fit into the
other major categories.
$1,526,321 (2.9%)

here

Homemaker and home
health care.
$1,755,238 (3.5%)

here

Youth development,
social adjustment
groups services,
camping.
$5,241,543 (10.4%)

here

Funding for new
agencies.
$500,000 (1.0%)

here

Reserve for uncollectible
pledges due to moves,
retirements, etc.
$3,000,000 (6.0%)

here

Protective care for children and adults,
supportive social
services to older adults,
adoption, foster care,
big brother—big sister
programs.
$4,759,177 (9.5%)

If you want to know where your Torch Drive contribution goes, who it helps, and how vitaly important it is, don't stop here. Read the rest of this ad, and find out how the

Give...for all the money from last year's Torch Drive has been used. Then, give even more generously this year, knowing that your 1985 contribution is needed by so many.

good it can do.