Health spas are focus of Hills crackdown

The health spas were raided after District Judge Margaret Schaeffer of Farmington issued search warrants for the five spas.

"The mission in this operation was to identify and arrest those persons involved in prostitution or other sex-related offenses, to confiscate any books, records, proceeds and paraphernalia relating to criminal activity," Dwyer said.

After examining some of the records and phone bills (showing calls made throughout the country) confiscated in the raids, police believe there may be "at te to (U.S) servicemen. It is only speculation that possibly these females were brought into the country as these men's wives," Dwyer said.

Only two of the 16 women arrested were U.S. clitzens. The others were from Korea with the exception of one with a Japanese clitzenship. "We are calling in the Immigration and Naturalization Department today. We feel a number of these women are illegally in the country," Dwyer said.

THE HEALTH spas raided Monday night and Tuesday alternoon included the Sun Spa, 29402 Orchard Lake, Kelko Spa, 29513 Nine Mile; Kim's Spa, 30332 Nine Mile; Tokyo Ortentai Health Spa, 28841 Orchard Lake, and Csaka Ortentai Health Spa, 38499 10 Mile.

Those arrested in the raids were charged with misdemeanor ordinance violations, Dwyer said.

Penalties for conviction under city ordinance is stiffer than under state law. The maximum penalty upon con-

two beepers "of the type used in narcotics trafficking" and two video cameras "that were part of the external security system" also were selized, Dwyer said.

The suspected cocaine was field tested and turned up positive. It's undergoing further analysis in the DEA tabe in Chicago. The jewelry will be appraised to determine actual worth, investigators said.

The suspected cocaine, much of the cash, some of the jewelry and many of the papers and records were found in a concealed safe behind a paneled door in the master bedroom on the second floor of the heavily secured house. Dayer said. The three-story bones, alting on a wooded lot in the 13 Milestander of the property of the DEA bettorit Field Division.
