

It's Homecoming '85

Thursday, October 10, 1985 O&E

At left: The Farmington High School Flag Corps leads the marching band along Grand River during the parade.

DESPITE THE overcast skies and chilly weather, the Farmington High School's Homecoming parade drew lots of onlookers Saturday morning. The parade was one of several special Homecoming '85 activities held throughout the week. Floats and the marching band were among the highlights of the parade, which wended its way from the school on Salawasee to Grand River, Farmington Road and back to the school.
