

Help wanted.

age runt, is blind. He wants others, losing their sight, to have the opportunity to learn braille through the Greater Detroit Society for the Blind, a Torch Drive supported agency.

CONTINUED CARE
Deborah Graze, Age 10 has Spina Bifida, a failure of the spinal column to close properly. Has undergone 14 operations. Has shunt braces, uses crutches. Has shunt to drain excess spinal fluid from brain to stomach. Wants to continue receiving care and treatment from Detroit Institute for Children, a Torch Drive supported agency for handicapped youngsters.

INVOLVEMENT
Edwina Pernell, Michigan Cancer Foundation volunteer since 1983. Though her husband died of cancer, Mrs. Pernell was so impressed with the way Michigan Cancer Foundation helped her husband during his illness, she wanted to become involved. This important Torch Drive supported agency needs the help of your United Foundation contribution.

HOME CARE
Scott Park, Age 8. Diagnosed as hemophiliac at age of 10 months. Lives with mother. Funds needed for continuing home care, plus hospital care, and emergency treatment. Support provided by United Foundation through Hemophilia Foundation of Michigan.

REHABILITATION
Cheryl Angelilli, Age 15. Avid swimmer since age 3, competitor since age 7. Sustained spinal cord injury in diving accident last year. Began therapy soon afterwards. Her ultimate goal is to walk again. The Rehabilitation Institute, the Torch Drive agency which provides therapy to Cheryl and hundreds of other accident and stroke victims, needs your help.

BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB
Mickey Lovelace, Age 12 lives with mother, four brothers and sisters. Parents divorced. Mother works part-time. One sister has Down's Syndrome. Mickey wants to be able to continue his activities at Boys and Girls Club of Royal Oak, which is supported by your Torch Drive dollars.

THERAPY
Chester Korzeniewski, 61-year old retiree from Detroit Marine Terminal and Detroit Police Department. Suffered stroke in 1978. Has made excellent recovery through therapy provided by American Heart Association of Michigan. Your Torch Drive contribution is vital to ongoing work of this agency.

AFTERSCHOOL ACTIVITIES
David Heinz would like to be able to continue after-school activities near his home at the Boys and Girls Club of Metropolitan Detroit, a Torch Drive supported agency.

CLASSES
Kelly Miles, Age 9 is looking forward to participation in tap dancing and other classes provided for the mentally handicapped at the F.A.A. Conservatory, a Torch Drive supported agency.

CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION
26,241 children reported as victims of abuse and neglect in 1984, including 2928 cases of sexual abuse. Seven Torch Drive supported agencies provide essential preventive programs, and need your help to sustain their vital work.

FAMILY SUPPORT PROGRAMS
20,000 cases of family violence reported in the tri-county area last year, plus rising unemployment and high divorce rate underline need for family counseling and support services. The seven United Foundation supported agencies which provide these essential services, need more help from you.

SPEECH THERAPY
Doris Fuller, Age 7 has been receiving speech therapy twice weekly for three years at Detroit Hearing and Speech Center. This Torch Drive supported agency needs your help to continue its work with Doris and other patients.

SUPPORT FOR THE ELDERLY
387,951 people in the tri-county area are 65 and over, with number increasing annually. Many are limited to fixed income and are becoming more susceptible to disease, physical and emotional problems as they continue to age. Eight Torch Drive supported agencies provide care, counseling and the special services needed by the elderly.

RESEARCH
Stephenie Witrock, 10-year old leukemia patient. In remission past four years. Enjoys swimming, running, babysitting, cheerleading. At-chance Birmingham YMCA, runs tri-county research through Children's Leukemia Foundation, a Torch Drive supported agency.

BRAILLE
George Raut, is blind. He wants others, losing their sight, to have the opportunity to learn braille through the Greater Detroit Society for the Blind, a Torch Drive supported agency.

DISEASE DETECTION
Diseases of the heart, cerebrovascular diseases, cancer of respiratory organs, cancer of digestive organs and other cancers are the five leading killers of tri-county area residents. Six Torch Drive supported agencies offer comprehensive screening and referral programs to detect these diseases early. Your increased support is needed.

BIG BROTHERS
More than 500 boys who come from single parent families are looking for big brothers to help provide support and counseling. Big Brothers, Big Sisters, Inc. is looking for help through your Torch Drive contribution.

RECREATION
Katie Kim, Age 12 is one of many children who wants to continue recreational activities through agencies like YMCA and YWCA. Your Torch Drive contribution is big source of a help.

ACTIVITIES
Virginia Hunter, Age 62 wants to continue her activities at the Walter P. Reuther Service Center. This is another Torch Drive supported agency that needs your help to carry on its important work.

SCIENTIFIC ADVANCEMENTS
Ricky Hamm, Age 10 continues to make progress after eight operations, including two kidney transplants. Help has been provided through scientific advancements and research made available by the National Kidney Foundation of Michigan, a Torch Drive supported agency.

INDEPENDENCE
Lloyd Spivey, is working hard to become independent through job-related skills he is learning at Goodwill Industries. Your Torch Drive contribution could be a big help.

HOMECARE AID
Joe Florkey, has been able to maintain his independence with assistance of homemaker aid from the Homemakers Service of Metropolitan Detroit, another Torch Drive supported agency which receives help from your United Foundation contribution.

VOLUNTEERS
John Lynch, Edith Jensen, Isabel Steedman, Mabel Ratcliff, are all volunteers, age 90 or over, who want to continue to help providing prescriptive medication for the elderly through World Medical Relief. Please assist them in their efforts through your Torch Drive contribution.

COUNSELING
Marge Hadley, wishes to continue providing counseling to arthritis sufferers through special classes made available at the Arthritis Foundation, Michigan Chapter, a Torch Drive supported agency.

Deborah Bifida, a column to undergo braces, uses to drain excess brain to stomach to continue receiving care from Detroit Institute for Children, a Torch Drive supported agency.

Edwina Pernell, since 1983 band director of the way Foundation band du wanted This in support help of control

Scott P. Diagnosed as hemophiliac, age of 10 months. Funds needed for continuing home care, plus hospital care, and emergency treatment. Support provided by United Foundation through Hemophilia Foundation of Michigan.

Cheryl Angelilli, since age 3, competitor since age 7. Sustained spinal cord injury in diving accident last year. Began therapy soon afterwards. Her ultimate goal is to walk again. The Rehabilitation Institute, the Torch Drive agency which provides therapy to Cheryl and hundreds of other accident and stroke victims, needs your help.

Mickey Lovelace, Age 12 lives with mother, four brothers and sisters. Parents divorced. Mother works part-time. One sister has Down's Syndrome. Mickey wants to be able to continue his activities at Boys and Girls Club of Royal Oak, which is supported by your Torch Drive dollars.

Doris Fuller, Age 7 has been receiving speech therapy twice weekly for three years at Detroit Hearing and Speech Center. This Torch Drive supported agency needs your help to continue its work with Doris and other patients.

Katie Kim, Age 12 is one of many children who wants to continue recreational activities through agencies like YMCA and YWCA. Your Torch Drive contribution is big source of a help.

Marge Hadley, wishes to continue providing counseling to arthritis sufferers through special classes made available at the Arthritis Foundation, Michigan Chapter, a Torch Drive supported agency.

These are only a few examples. Your pledge to the United Foundation has a lot of important jobs waiting for it. It's going to work for the Arthritis Foundation, the American Red Cross, Michigan Heart Association, Children's Hospital, family services, boy scouts, girl scouts, Salvation Army, Visiting Nurses Association and many other charitable organizations throughout Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties. Your contribution and thousands of others like it, are the backbone of support for 127 essential Torch Drive-supported agencies. Every dollar counts. So, please give generously.

The more you give, the more we can do.

Give...for all the good it can do.

THE
Observer & Eccentric
NEWSPAPERS