Crafts from Mother Nature

Members of North Farmington Garden Club Sharon Schroeder (left) and Joan Scituro frame their new president Marlene Wilke with one of the many grapevine wreaths they will be selling from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday in Dunckel Middle School. All of the items made by the gardeners come from Mother Nature, glued, dried, woven and arranged into wreaths, baskets, swags, wall hangings and conversation pieces. The club members' Mother Nature booth is joined by booths of about 75 juried artisans that fill the school for the one-day sale.

Crafters tables, booths can be rented for fair

On Friday and Saturday, Nov. 8 and 9, Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, on 12 Mile just east of Farmington Road, will hold its third annual Arts and Crafts Fair. The event is sponsored by the Women's League of the Church. The public is welcome to attend. There will be no charge at the door.

Anyone interested in selling his or her arts and crafts is welcome to participate. Reservations can be made by calling Jinny Morris at 553-4082.

chairwoman of this project, or Karin Schonfelder at 478-0984. To ensure a choice location, reservations should be made as soon as possible. Those desiring further information may call the church office at 553-3380.

Food and refreshments will be served both days by members of the women's guild and of the church's youth group. Cost for booth rental is $25 for both days and table rental is $10. Those participating may bring their own tables if desired.

Yogaday is for teaching developing, improving

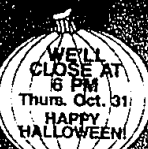

Registrations are now being taken for 'Yogaday '85' set to run from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 16, in North Congregational Church, 26275 Northwestern Highway in Southfield. The day is sponsored by the Yoga Association of Greater Detroit and offers 20 Yoga and related classes.

Registration for the full day of activities is taken by sending a check for $25, made payable to YAGD, and mailed to Yogaday, 4104 Colonial, Royal Oak 48072. Registration at the door is $30. Inquiries for those who wish to attend only morning or afternoon sessions are taken by calling the Yoge, at 577-0047.

Participants have a choice of five one-hour sessions that include Hatha Yoga for all levels, meditation, massage, nutrition, aerobic, stress reduction, healing, Tai Chi Chuan, breathing and relaxation.

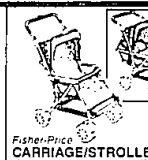

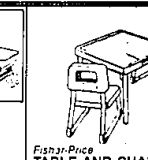

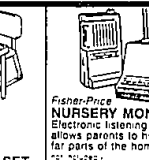

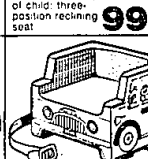

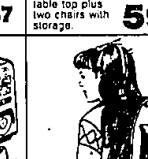

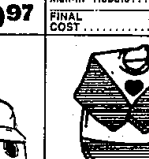

The sessions are for those who want to improve yoga practice, learn how to handle stress, develop improved body-mind harmony, increase flexibility and strength, improve breathing, feel more energetic, learn about holistic health methods and discover the best within themselves.
