

Cranbrook hosts print exhibit

An exhibit of 98 works from the permanent collection of the Whitney Museum of American Art opens Tuesday at Cranbrook Academy of Art Museum and continues through Jan. 26. Titled "20th-Century American Printmakers," it illustrates the history of the print in 20th-century America and offers a cross-section of the best prints of the century. Pictured above is "Barber Shop Chord," 1931, by Stuart Davis. At left, is a woodcut by Roy Lichtenstein, "Indian with Pony," 1931. Museum hours are 1-5 p.m. Tuesday-Sunday, 500 Lone Pine, Bloomfield Hills. Admission charge.
