Farmington Musicales Begins Fifth Season

A guest salad luncheon will inaugurate the Farmington Musicales' fifth year of activity on Sept. 16 at noon in the Farmington Community Center.

THE ENTIRE YEAR'S programs will center around an original poetic theme to be stated in September with the first performance of a tone poem for solo voice and piano composed by Charlene W. Slaby with lyrics by June Rado.

Entitled "The Green World," the new composition will be sung by Merv Mackin, contra- alto. In addition, Mrs. Mackin will sing two 18th century art songs by Stanford and Handel.

Her accompanist will be Marie Walck. Mesdames Slaby, Rado, Mackin, and Walck are all members of the Musicales.

THE PROGRAM WILL feature a performance by Jerra Gorrell, winner of the Musicales' 1970 piano scholarship.

A senior at North Farmington High School, Miss Gorrell has attended Interlochen National Music Camp this summer on the All-State Program.

Program chairman for the September meeting will be Mrs. Wilfred Strey and vice chairman, Mrs. George Rickcy.

At the annual Southeast District Meeting of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs on Sept. 22 at the Central United Methodist Church in Pontiac, Musicales members will engage in discussions and reports concerning their primary community interests — student scholarships, music in hospitals, junior music club activities, and National Music Week.

The Farmington Musicales is an affiliate of the National Federation of Music Clubs. Drawing its membership from Farmington and nearby communities, the Musicales invites those who enjoy performing or listening to good music to call Mrs. James Skillman, membership chairman, at 474-2293. Instrumentalists, particularly string players, will be welcomed.

wood creek farms

By ANNE M. PHILLIPS MA 6-6335

The monthly council meeting held Tuesday night was unusually well attended. In main discussion would regard least and rubbish burning, at least 50 turned out.

Following the usual presentation of problems to be considered by the council the village president, Bill Brown, spoke of the proposed ordinance.

Then Dave Goldman passed copies of an ordinance about burning of leaves and yard wastes, and spoke to us on what was being done in neighboring communities.

Bill then opened the matter for discussion and a lot of discussion followed, for Wood Creek does have many, many trees which do result in huge quantities of leaves in the fall.

Many suggestions were made about the actual contamination from burning leaves, the nuisance problem, and the problem of bagging them for pickup.

Finally a motion was made for a show of hands which Bill then called for. It was at least a 10 to one vote against the proposed ordinance.

All who attended must have been impressed with our fine council and also by the spirit of this village.

FOR THE information of all, especially our newcomers, Alice Tolt of 2861 Village Lane is our village clerk. The village phone number is 851-2241.

Office hours are irregular. When Alice is home, the office is open. When she is away, the office cannot answer, so please try again.

IT IS WITH deep regret that I have to report the death of Nick's grandfather.

They had two homes for several years — one here on Chesnut Cl., and the other in Bradenton, Fla. They came north for the wedding of their granddaughter Aug. 9 in St. John Baptist Church, Southfield and 5 Mile Rd. On Aug. 14, Nick had a heart attack and was dead on arrival at the hospital.

So one week after the wedding, Nick's funeral was held in the same church. We extend our deepest sympathy to his wife, Pauline, and to his family.

Merl and Wilma Navil, with son Kurt, had a marvelous vacation trip west in their camper.

They went by way of the Canadian Rockies to Vancouver and Seattle, where they went to Mt. Olympus and the rain forest, to Mt. Ranier where they did some hiking at the 7,000-foot level. On their return trip they revisited the Tetons, Yellow Stone and the Big Horn Mountains.

The DeColes are all back in Wood Creek. Pat and the children spent seven weeks at their summer home on Georgian Bay but Ben was able to be there for weekends only.

Ann Wright, 12-year-old granddaughter of Agnes and Paul Wright, arrived here by air from her home in Allegheny, N.Y., on Aug. 12. Her older sister, Jane, had been chosen queen of the Oakton Youth Organization and was a counselor at a retarded girls camp in Pennsylvania.

She was through there in time to return home and join her parents in their drive here. They arrived Aug. 26 and had a visit here before all drove back to New York.

LAST WEEK Saturday, Nevin and Mildred Hummon invited nearly 100 persons (nearly per cent Wood Creekers) to their Arrowhead Golf Club for an afternoon of golf.

This was followed by a cocktail hour and a delicious steak dinner. It was a beautiful day, congenial group, an outstanding event.

Harriet and David Goldman entertained 35 members of the firm of which Dave is a member at a picnic supper Friday night last week. Dave then showed his pictures of their Scandinavian trip.

HANS AND GENEVA Rogind are back from a trip to Denmark. They booked on a direct flight from Detroit to Paris leaving Aug. 14. Lo and behold when they boarded they found that Frank and Ida Jensen were also on that flight.

Frank's son is running the business while his parents are enjoying Europe. They went to Germany to visit their daughter-in-law, with the two grandchildren, is visiting her family.

They then went to their native Denmark, Hans and Geneva stayed with friends in Paris for a couple days before flying to Copenhagen. Here they visited with the family and friends of Hans.

They also went to the island of Fyn where Paul-Roel and his two girls, Heidi and Christa, have been visiting with Paul's parents. Of course Paul is not vacationing but is very busy arranging for his chess-ess.

But the Roginds did enjoy dinner with them on Fyn, also taking the two girls sightseeing with them in Copenhagen. On their return trip they spent a couple of days in London. While in Europe their two boys, Erik and Paul, stayed with Geneva's sister, in Evert, Mich.

IT FURTHER APPEARING to the Court that a summons was issued against the Defendant, WILLIE JACKSON and NETTIE V. MAYNARD and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, and returned showing that service could not be made.

IT FURTHER APPEARING to the Court that a Civil action in which personal jurisdiction over the Defendants named herein, NETTIE V. MAYNARD and WILLIE JACKSON, or their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, is not required.

IT FURTHER APPEARING, that an Order of Publication is necessary in this case.

NOW THEREFORE, it is hereby ordered that the Defendant, NETTIE V.
