Satellite Bowl hosts Masters field

The most important battle of the season will be fought out this weekend on the lanes of Satellite Bowl when 180 of the area's stars do battle in the Masters Tournament.

100 Butterfly state cut: 55.29

included in the group will be Mike Clemence, who is hoping to repeat and walk ways, with the top prize of $1,500. The bat-tle will run both Saturday and Sunday, and should prove to be equal to any pln war waged here in several years.

Tom McKay, executive secretary of the Detroit Bowling Association, has made some severe rule changes, which will be followed closely during the two-day event.

The 160-man field will be reduced to 32 for the finals.

WONDERLAND LANES: The pins were flying faster and high than they had been all season, as four more members were inducted into the 700 club. Leading the way was Mark Hammel with a 298 game in 748 (series) to pace the Classic field. He was followed by Karl Kuminn with a 718. Other 700 members included Dick LaMonte with a 711 and Tom Matcheonki with a 735.

Alice Watchford was the top lady with a 646.

MERRI-BOWL: Wayne Herman posted a 286 to take high-game honors for the week. Carol Young led the ladies with a 235.

WOODLAND LANES: Linda Simmons showed the way during the week with a 263. Matt Surlock posted a 264 in 640. Also, Mike Travis had a 655 and John Kummer rolled a 645.

WESTLAND BOWL. Jackie Cortez took over the spoilight when she rolled a double planchle. 46-710. It was the first conversion to Early Risers League, Char Whiteman was high with a 603, while Nicci Cuzart led the Monday Men's League with a 656.

GARDEN LANES: Joe Churchill scored a 652 to lead the way. He was followed by Glen Baskee with a 645. Bill Bince was the top marksman in his league with a 668.

BEL-AIRE: There was only one new member added to the 700 club and he was Mike Flynn, who rolled a 267 in 765.

SUPER BOWL: Helen Kubinec set the pace during the week for the ladies, scoring a 675 that included games of 225 and 203.
