

Slow start trips ice-cold Falcons

By Larry O'Connor

For Livonia Churchill Tuesday, long distance was the next best thing, period.

A torrid first-quarter perimeter shooting performance played a role. But disconnecting Farmington's Bruce Kratt was what ultimately brought the Chargers' a 61-43 win over the visiting Falcons in a Western Lakes basketball game.

Churchill, 4-2 in the league and 6-4 overall, was an uncanny 10 of 17 from all area codes the first eight minutes while holding Kratt to only four points in the process. The number the Chargers did on the Falcon's high-scoring guard is what rang up the win, according to Churchill coach Don Albertson. "Yesterday, I told them if we could hold Kratt and (Kyle) Mutz to under 25 points we could win the ballgame," said Albertson. "The key to the ballgame was holding Kratt and Mutz to under 25 points."

MUTZ, WHO checked in with a game-high 20 points, made Albertson's prognostication close. The Chargers' Jim Kistner, and then later Kevin Bobb, helped make it fact by putting a lid on Kratt.

Churchill's 20-point outburst, the most points in one quarter for the Chargers this season, didn't hurt either. From the outside, the Chargers couldn't miss. Brian O'Leary, who finished with a team-high 11 points, had six points in the surge.

However, the shooting touch fell off later. The Chargers had only four field goals in the final two quarters.

And from the line, the Chargers were just as shaky. The team connected on only 11 of 19 attempts from the line in a four-filled fourth quarter. In fact, 11 Churchill points in the final eight minutes resulted from free throws.

Farmington (4-2 WLA, 6-4 overall) dialed the wrong number to the basket most of the night. The Falcons outscored their opponent 35-31 in the final three quarters, but a dreadful shooting performance (one-of-10) in the first eight minutes hurt.

WHEN THE FALCONS whittled the deficit to six in the fourth quarter, they continued to miss key shots.

"We stayed on 35 for about two or three minutes at the end," said Farmington coach Rich Roy. "We had a couple of shots, a couple of layups. We just missed them."

For the game, Farmington shot 16 of 54 for 30 percent from the floor. Churchill, after shooting 59 percent in the first quarter, finished 18 of 50 for 36 percent.

Some missed shots, with the lack of clutch free-throw shooting, had Albertson somewhat worried.

Lubieniecki fumes at listless Raiders

North Farmington volleyball coach Sandy Lubieniecki isn't generally given to admonishing his team with strong words. But after Livonia Stevenson walked past her Raiders, 15-9, 15-8, on Monday...

"We played poorly," she said. "We made lachrymose passes, the setters were off. It's just a shame because our hitters are hitting the ball well, and we can't get the ball to them."

"It's like they are playing in a public library — nobody talks on the court. We don't need cheerleaders, but we do need basic communication. This was our poorest match. I'm disappointed."

Even Stevenson coach Lee Cagle noted that something was missing from the North attack.

"North didn't really pass well. And we made some nice blocks to take away from their hitters. But, basically, we were not pressed to perform at a high level," he said.

KRISTINE BAILEY and Koly Gage did much of the damage at the net for Stevenson (3-1). Chris Conn was consistently effective setting.

"I was little concerned about our free throw shooting at the end there," said Albertson. "The shots were just going blank, blank off the rim."

Three Churchill players checked in with double figures as O'Leary's 11 points led the trio.

KEN GENJEAR, WHO sank six of 10 free throws, finished up with 10. Mickey Katschur also collected 10.

Mutz, who rebounded from a difficult start in the first half, canned 12 points in the second half to account for his 20. The 6-4 center was the Falcons only scoring threat as the Chargers used a mixed package of defenses.

A half-court press in the first half forced numerous turnovers. The Chargers' defense would later cause foul trouble for Farmington. The Falcons were called for 19 personal fouls as Kratt fouled out late in the fourth quarter.

CANTON 67, N. FARMINGTON 47: Four wins in five games for Plymouth Canton, one win in six for North Farmington.

Host Canton outscored North by 18 points at the free throw line, hitting 27 of 43 attempts. North was 9-of-25.

"We did an excellent job on our defense," said Canton coach Tom Niemi. "The kids played smart and patient. We played man-to-man defense most of the game and made them shoot from the outside."

Joel Miles led the Chiefs with 15 points. Jeff Lyle added 13. Dan Olszewski pulled down 11 rebounds.

With Roger Trice and Tyrone Reeves doing the work defensively, North's standout Rick Anderson was limited to eight points in the first half.

Anderson heated up in the second half and finished with 20 to lead all scorers. North's Paul Wahrman added 18.

Canton is 3-4 in the Western Lakes and 4-6 overall. North dips to 2-5 in the conference, 4-5 on the season.

PLYM. CHRISTIAN 76, ROEPER 58: Eight straight wins for the Plymouth Christian Eagles.

Pat McCarthy scored 25 and brother Jim McCarthy added 10 to pace the victors.

"We were a little concerned going in," said Eagles coach Jeff Cook. "We heard they were a good team. We were up for the game."

Plymouth Christian forced 26 turnovers which resulted in 29 points. Pat Gleason scored 17 for Roeper.
