Caddies become Evans Scholars

Chick Evans college scholarship have been awarded to 28 outstanding Michigan caddies, including two young women, by the Golf Association of Michigan.

The awards, part of the national Evans Scholars program administered by the Western Golf Association, were announced recently by newly elected GAM President Jerry Gillette.

Forty Evans Scholars will attend the University of Michigan, and 14 more will be enrolled at Michigan State. Each Evans caddie covers tuition and housing in the Evans Chapter House on campus, an estimated value of more than $10,000 if received for four years. The educational chapters at MSU and Michigan are two of the 14 houses operated by the Evans program in the Midwest.

There are some 860 Evans Scholars attending college under the national program, and more than 200 new award winners have been announced this winter. The caddie scholarship concept was initiated by famed amateur golfer Chick Evans in 1930, and more than 4,300 former caddies have graduated as Evans Scholars since that time.

The scholarships were awarded on a commendation basis considering caddie record, academic standing in high school and the need for financial aid. Support for the Evans program comes from contributions of more than 100,000 golfers, including more than $15,000 in Michigan.

AREA AWARD WINNERS

University of Michigan: Michelle Fe. 17, Detroit, Bishop Borgess High School, Joel Kovak, 17, Farmington Hills, North Farmington High, Stephen Pogue, 17, Farmington Hills, North Farmington High, Ronald Randick, 17, Livonia, Stevenson High.

Michigan State University: Marc Baret, 18, Detroit, Bishop Borgess High, Robert Gagne, 17, Detroit, Bishop Borgess High, David Johnson, 17, Livonia, Catholic Central High, Joseph Smith, 17, Farmington Hills, Harrison High.

Hubenschmidt lifts CC

Freshman Jim Hubenschmidt enjoyed the best night of his young hockey career Saturday, scoring four goals and adding one assist in Catholic Central's 10-0 triumph over Birmingham Brother Rice in a Michigan Metro game at the Redford Arena.

CC led 1-0 after one period, but then Hubenschmidt exploded for all four of his goals in a seven-goal CC surge in the middle period.

Walt Bartels and Eric Kapelanski contributed two goals each for the winners, now 13-0 overall.

Chris Peters and Jamie Atkinson also scored for the Shamrocks, who increased their West Division record to 8-2, just one point behind first place Trenton (8-1-1).

Chris Hohnicki had three assists on the night, with teammates Pete Barnes and Ted Milich getting two each.

"The first period was up and down, but they (Rice) couldn't get off a shot," said CC coach John Gumbleton, whose team outshot the Warriors, 39-11.
