Volunteer honored

Farmington Community Center's "Volunteer of the Month" is Ann Reed, who has served the center for the past five years in a variety of activities.

The Farmington Hills resident has donated her time as a hostess for the annual Santa Luncheon and the "Taste of Farmington" afternoons. She has helped with clerical tasks and the opening of Originals Ltd., the gift shop on the center's second floor. Reed is a graduate of Bryant and Stratton Secretarial School of Boston and worked as an administrative secretary with Kuhlman Corp. for 15 years. She is the mother of two children and has three grandchildren.

Music competition under way

Deadline is Saturday, Feb. 15, for music students to enter Farmington Musicale's "Musical Excellence Scholarship" competition.

It is open to instrumentalists in grades 7-12 and vocalists in the grades 9-12 who attend Farmington public or private schools, children of Farmington and Farmington Hills residents wherever they attend school, and the children of Farmington Musicale members.

Cash awards will be given to continue music study to the winners in three age categories in instrumental, voice, and piano competitions.

The separate piano competition is made possible by funds set up in the memory of Shirley Strey and Sue McCallum, both performing pianists and founding members of Farmington Musicale.

The funds are intended to encourage excellence. Scholarships are given as Strey-McCallum Piano Awards.

Pianists will compete Wednesday, Feb. 26, in Nadin Park United Methodist Church, 28987 11 Mile Road. Instrumentalists and vocalists will compete Thursday, Feb. 27 in Harrison High School, 29955 12 Mile Road.

Entrants must perform a classical composition that is memorized. An accompanist is required if the accompanment is originally written.

Mrs. Paul Bunin will take inquiries and send applications on request by calling her at 557-9371.

Served with distinction

Alexander Hamilton, 1757-1804, was a man of intelligence, energy and loyalty. He had served with distinction during the Revolutionary War. He signed the Constitution as the sole representative for the state of New York. His tragic death from a duel with Aaron Burr resulted mainly because of their political differences.

Your child will gain one full grade level in just 36 hours. Guaranteed.

In just a short time, your child will be reading at a full grade level better. Or solving math problems that right now seem impossible. And, best of all, discovering how it feels to succeed.

How? By spending two hours a week for 18 weeks at a Sylvan Learning Center. Sylvan's proven approach to learning has helped thousands of children do better in school. In a stress-free environment of positive encouragement and personal attention, we guarantee your child's math or reading skills will improve a full grade equivalent score in just 36 instruction hours. Or we will provide up to 12 additional hours of instruction, at no further cost.

To help your child master the basic reading and math skills, call the Sylvan Learning Center near you for a free consultation. The sooner your child begins, the sooner he'll gain a full grade level in reading or math.

We guarantee it.

Measurement will be based on a nationally recognized achievement test for improvement in oral reading comprehension or vocabulary for math (comprehension or application).
