Honeymoons

This island paradise is off the ordinary tourist beat, but still offers good accommodations and relaxing times sailing, sunning, or scuba diving.

Judy Zack of Sanders Travel Consultants in Farmington Hills points out that a vacation here is a very good deal for the American dollar and a medium-priced honeymoon.

The happy couple will enjoy the outdoor cafes, walks along the bleached white beaches, dining on red snapper and lobster, and the casual dress.

If the happy couple is really looking for adventure and the photographs of a lifetime, an AFRICAN SAFARI could be the right answer.

Allow two weeks for this trip. Travel from Detroit to New York and then through Amsterdam before going on to Nairobi and the game reserves of Kenya. Bed and board is in very comfortable lodges and meals are truly gourmet. It can get a bit hot and dusty traveling in the van from reserve to reserve, but unforgettable sights of grazing herds, a chorus line of zebras in the sunset and the rare rhino make up for any minor inconveniences.

Terri Rotenberg at Gemini Travel in Farmington Hills, who has gone on this adventure herself, notes it's an expensive honeymoon.

"Don't forget evening dress for some very fancy hotel stops," she adds.

Pull out all the stops for a fantastic honeymoon in central FRANCE if the sky's the limit on cost.

Mary Thomas of Omega Travel in Farmington suggests a four-day trip to Burgundy for tours of medieval castles, wine tasting at world famous vineyards and daily hot air balloon flights above the gorgeous French countryside. Each day's stay at a different castle includes candlelit dinners, picnics on castle ramparts and luxurious accommodations.

For this unforgettable honeymoon, best times to go are late spring through fall. There's a maximum of 16-18 persons on each tour and separate balloon flights for each couple.

A French flavor is also one of the many charms of a honeymoon in one of the ultimate romantic settings: the South Pacific islands of TAHITI, MOOREA AND BORA BORA.

From late March through early November temperatures range from 69 to 87 degrees for pure enjoyment of sunbathing and water fun. Delight in drinks made with coconut milk and freshly prepared dinners of marlin and dolphin.

"Local hotels offer fine entertainment and there are native shows weekly," comments Vicki Zahra of All-Ways Travel and Tours of Garden City.

Is there somewhere in the world you wish to go but that hasn't been mentioned yet?

It's a dream come true for cruise lovers to book their honeymoon aboard the Sea Goddess for one of several intercontinental odysseys. The 340-foot ship accommodates 116 passengers with comforts that rival that of the world's best hotels and restaurants, according to Diane Moore of Great Water Yachts in St. Clair Shores.

Moore suggests a holiday cruise of seven nights from RIO TO BUENOS AIRES: the ship stops at idyllic ports and quiet marinas along the route. It's a special way to see the multi-faceted wonders of the South American continent unfold. Hop aboard November through March.

It could possibly be one of the world's most expensive cruises, but, after all, aren't you both worth it?
