

Courses In Judaism Are Set

Registrations for Birmingham Temple Sunday School will take place Sunday, Sept. 13, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, in the Glenn Levey Junior High School on Nine Mile west of Telegraph, where classes will be held beginning Sept. 20.

The program provides children of the congregation (nursery through grade nine, with an education in the beliefs and practices of Humanistic Judaism through a study of Jewish history. The present curriculum includes studies of Jewish symbols and holidays, Bible personalities and the Hebrew calendar in the early grades.

Heroes of the Talmud, modern Jewish leaders and Jews in different lands are studied in the intermediate grades. Junior high students study the story of Israel, comparative religions of the world and the beliefs and actions of humanistic Judaism. Bar and Bat Mitzvah candidates are also given instructions.

Modern Hebrew is also being offered in a three-year program to the students. Rabbi Wine teaches the classes, placing emphasis on linguistic skills for everyday conversation. Those wishing to register should call the Temple office at 549-5490.

COMING TO MEMORIAL — The "Come Alive Singers," a Cincinnati Bible Seminary group that represents nine states and three foreign countries, will give a concert at 8:30 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 20, in the Memorial Church of Christ, 35475 Five Mile, Livonia. The singers, who have appeared throughout the country and on television, will include in their program traditional and modern religious music and excerpts from the folk music. "Tell It Like It Is."

African Missionary Speaks At Trinity

The Rev. Ed Louton, an Assemblies of God missionary to South Africa, will be guest speaker Tuesday, Sept. 22, at 7:30 p.m., at Trinity Assembly of God Church, 29200 Shawnesse, Farmington.

His address is part of a fall Missionary Convention of the church which begins Sunday, Sept. 20, at 7 p.m., with a talk by the Rev. J. Shaffer representing the Home Missions Ministry, Wednesday evening, at 7:30, the speaker will be the Rev. James Hanc from West Samoa.

Rev. Louton and his wife, Barbara, were active in literature distribution, evangelism, church establishment and promotion of youth work during their past term of missionary service.

Previous missionary activity involved them in work among the Maluto people of Cape Town and Basuto people of the African Republic of Lesotho. Two of the Loutons' three children were born in Southern Africa.

Rev. Louton has been a missionary since 1958. He is a graduate of South African Bible Institute located in the vicinity of Johannesburg. Both he and his wife have studied at Central Bible College, Spring, Mo.

Religion Update

Rev. Lester Kinsolving's

The Rev. Carl McIntire, the far-right fundamentalist radio broadcaster, and Howard Hughes of the resort town, of Cape May, N.Y., have scored a major coup: South Vietnam's Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky has accepted an invitation to address the "Total Victory Rally" in Washington on Oct. 3 — against the strong advice of

Rev. Louton has been a missionary since 1958. He is a graduate of South African Bible Institute located in the vicinity of Johannesburg. Both he and his wife have studied at Central Bible College, Spring, Mo.

Rev. McIntire's importing of Ky — and the threat of counter-demonstrations — apparently motivated one official of the National Council of Churches (NCC) to abandon the long-standing policy that "If we ignore McIntire-he'll ignore us."

The Rev. Kenneth Neigh, general secretary of the United Presbyterian Church's Board of National Missions, said Ky's acceptance of the McIntire invitation "clearly identifies the Saigon regime with radical right-wing groups in U.S.A."

"McINTIRE is a deposed minister of my church," noted Dr. Neigh. "He has raised funds, by falsehoods and by maligning the integrity of the churches and their leaders. His theme for 35 years has been that these legally constituted official church organizations have been 'communist-inspired,' a charge refuted by every investigating group which has pursued these claims."

Including the FBI, disclosed Dr. Neigh, "which we discovered had placed two of its agents in the government department of the United Presbyterian Church headquarters. When we contacted FBI headquarters in Washington after they were discovered, we were told: 'It's all a mistake.'"

Actually, Dr. McIntire, who is pastor of the Bible Presbyterian Church of Collinswood, N.J., is in sore need of a climax, after a year of disasters. He was voted out of the leadership of the American Council of Christian Churches, which he founded. His radio station WXPB, Media, Pa., had its license revoked by the FCC — the first time in history that any station has been so disciplined for violation of the FCC fairness doctrine.

Last year, he announced that U.S. Sen. J. Strom Thurmond would lead 50,000 demonstrators in a "March on Trenton." The South Carolina senator was wise enough not to show up — and neither did any of the announced number of marchers. (McIntire was enraged. He screamed at amused reporters on hand, whom he described as "the leftist-liberal press") that "They're making fun of me! But that's all right — I've got God on my side!"

The "March on Trenton" was scheduled to protest the 19 charges filed by New Jersey's State Department of Education against McIntire's Shelton College, where 180 students are housed in two of the colleges he bought here.

The department's charges included: "The McIntire film, 'Hidden Island,' and have refreshments. The church is aiming for the largest attendance of 500 children, youth and adults for the Rally Day service at 10:15 a.m."

The "Denominational Trio" from Allen Park will be featured in the program, along with the Clarenceville Choralaires, led by Allen Schweizer. Schweizer also will lead singing for the entire Sunday school from kindergarten through adult.

Those interested may enroll for the full course at the demonstration site, or by calling the Institute, WO 5-5980.

The Rev. Thomas J. Bresnahan, institute director, said the course offers "quick and easy methods for bettering self-confidence; speaking in public; improving memory; handling people; improving personal motivation and developing other skills that give the 'slight edge' needed to practice leadership."

The fair, a first in the movement toward better understanding among faiths, is hosted by Holy Cross Greek Orthodox Church. It will include the active participation of the Eastern Orthodox, Catholic, Presbyterian, Episcopal and the Jewish community.

The fair will open at 10 a.m. and will continue until 10 p.m. Admission to the park will pay for all rides throughout the day. Ethnic groups will feature booths with displays, novelties and baked goods. A folk rock group will entertain in the early evening hours.

The public is invited and tickets are also available at all Hudson's stores and from the religious groups participating.

Sale Planned
St. David's Episcopal Church at 27500 Marquette in Garden City will have a rummage and bake sale Saturday, Sept. 19 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Card Party Set
St. Matthew Lutheran Church at 5885 Venoy Rd. in Westland will host a card party and bake sale Wednesday, Sept. 23 from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Door prizes and table prizes will be awarded. Ten sponsors are requesting a $1.50 donation.

included a significant number of inadequacies, in such areas as records, financing, library and faculty as well as the failure to teach courses advertised in the catalogue. (In the midst of this battle, Shelton had to fire its academic dean and vice president, Richard Coulter, after the press revealed the fact that he possessed none of the five academic degrees he had listed in the catalogue. This, Coulter explained, was "all in error, an oversight — the catalogue was printed in a hurry!"

AN EVEN MORE embarrassing scandal erupted in 1965, regarding the affidavits filed by 15 of the Shelton girls who are housed in McIntire's Christian Admiral Hotel. The young ladies charged the manager of this hotel, Clayton Bancroft, with various instances of improper sexual conduct. This revelation motivated the resignation of Dr. Arthur Steele as Shelton's president.

"It is the only reason why I severed my relations with Shelton College," explains Dr. Steele, now the president of Florida's Clearwater Christian College.

But despite sulphuric denunciations from other fundamentalists such as the editor of the "Capital Voice" of the National Bible Association, McIntire said "I cannot and will not fire this man." And Bancroft still manages the hotel.

This is understandable, since Bancroft is the son of McIntire's "International Christian Relief" and is reportedly the only man who knows all the details of McIntire's vast financial dealings.

Discussions Scheduled On Sexuality
"Sexuality and the Human Community" will be the topic for three discussion meetings in St. Paul United Presbyterian Church, beginning at 9:30 a.m. Sunday, Sept. 20.

The Rev. Russell Dürler of Highland Park Presbyterian Church will lead the meetings, part of St. Paul's adult studies program.

The other sessions on the topic will be held at 9:30 a.m. Sunday, Sept. 27, and Sunday, Oct. 11. All interested are invited.
