

Busy, busy, busy

Don McSween (left), Mike Tumey (below) and Eileen Murtough (top right) will all be involved in a wealth of athletic activity this weekend. McSween and his Michigan State hockey team will be after its fifth straight Central Collegiate Hockey Association title beginning Friday night at Joe Louis Arena. Western Michigan and Bowling Green will face off at 5 p.m., MSU and Lake Superior at 8 p.m. The championship is at 7 p.m. Saturday. Tumey and his North Farmington swim team will compete in the state Class A swim meet Saturday at Michigan State University. Tumey is expected to place near the top in two events and a relay. Murtough and her No. 1-ranked North Farmington gymnastics team will be among the favorites at the Class A regional meet at Troy High Saturday. Farmington Harrison will also compete at the regional.

Bud tourney on tap this weekend

The Budweiser Indoor Soccer Tournament, sponsored by the Michigan Soccer Association, kicks off this weekend at the Four Seasons Complex in Farmington Hills. Four area men's teams will be in action on Sunday. The Redford Marauders, Great Lakes League champs, will face the Livonia Homenthmen at 4 p.m. In the 3 p.m. game, Detroit College of Business squares off against the Birmingham Cobras. Round-robin play begins Saturday as the Flint Sports Club and the Flint Arrows tangle at 6 p.m. All six teams return to action Saturday, March 15 (6 p.m.) and Sunday, March 16 (3 and 4 p.m.). Tournament play continues at 2 p.m. Sunday, March 23, and 2 p.m. April 6, (the finals). For more information, call Joe Mancini at 661-9325.

SOME OF THE TOP women's players in the area will also be on hand at 1 and 2 p.m. in games on Sunday. Players will be vying for spots on the state select team (21 and over) and the 30 and over squad. The two teams will meet in an All-Star Game on April 6. Several outstanding area players, including Cathy Cole, coach of the North Farmington boys and girls squads; and Bloomfield Hills Lahser's Julie Gnaou, MVP in the 1985 Observer All-Star Girls Soccer Classic, are both expected to play. Several Schoolcraft College players will also be on hand. For more information, call Mari-Jo Wickens at 474-0680.
