

Riggio-Fleming

Patricia Joanna Fleming and Ronald Joseph Riggio were married by the Rev. Susan Dunlap in Faith United Methodist Church, Belleville. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fleming of Belleville and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Riggio of Farmington.

The bride wore a gown of white taffeta, fashioned with Victorian sleeves, a lace yoke and stand-up collar. The yoke and skirt of the gown were decorated with maribou. She carried red roses and a white maribou muff, designed by her mother.

Raylee Morgan served as her sister's matron of honor with bridesmaids Nancy Fleming and Sharon Fleming, who wore gowns of red taffeta.

Paul Riggio served as his brother's best man with Dan Fleming, Nick Michaelian, Bob Fleming and Paul A. Riggio.

The bride is a graduate of Belleville High School and Cleary College, and is employed as an administrative assistant with Ford Motor Co. The groom is a graduate of Farmington High School and served for six years in the U.S. Navy. He is employed with Ford Motor Co.

The couple received 200 guests in Vladimir's before leaving for a trip to Las Vegas, Nev., and Hawaii.

They will make their home in Canton.

Smith-Knapp

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of Farmington Hills announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen Ann, to William Knapp, son of Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Knapp of Baton Rouge, La. A July wedding is planned.

Carlini-Griffin

Henry Carlini and Mrs. Pina Moran of Farmington Hills announce the engagement of their daughter, Victoria Carlini, to Grant C. Griffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Griffin of Watervliet, Mich.

The bride-to-be and her fiancé are both graduates of Michigan State University. She is employed in Chrysler Corp.'s sales and marketing department. He is employed with Marketing Principals Group, in Warren.

A July wedding is planned in Martha-Mary Chapel, Greenfield Village.

4 congregations join for Ecumenical service

An Ecumenical Good Friday service of music and worship will begin at 1:30 p.m. Friday, March 28 in First United Methodist Church, 33221 Grand River, downtown Farmington.

The observance will be sponsored jointly by four Farmington area congregations and their participating clergy: the Rev. Victor Mesenbrink of Hope Lutheran Church, the Rev. Lee Taylor of Salem United Church of Christ, the Rev. Richard Iwick of Trinity Episcopal Church and the Rev. Arthur Spafford of First United Methodist Church.

Anthems will be sung by a combined choir from the sponsoring churches, and the clergy will speak to the theme, "Views of the Cross." The offering will go to the new Samaritan Counseling Center.

CUSTOM REUPHOLSTERY

THE ART OF REUPHOLSTERY.
Building on your frame (where you save big dollars), the upholsterer re-tilts the springs, puts in new webbing, all new padding, filling and totally re-creates the sofa. This is all hand-work involving a high order of skills. What you get back is a piece of furniture in the class of custom-made.

THE FABRIC ADVANTAGE.
A significant advantage in reupholstering is fabric selection. You choose from a practically panoramic range of colors and textures. So you can find just about any fabric, at any price, to fit any decor. Call American and Save.

If Everybody Were The Same, We Could All Invest In The Same IRA.

But because we're all different, we have different ideas on what kind of IRA investments are best for each of us.

How much can we save on taxes. Even how much interest income we can tax shelter.

So at First of America, we offer a full range of IRA investment options. From FDIC insured Certificate of Deposit IRAs to an IRA portfolio on stock, bond and mutual fund investments that you direct.

All of them with some of the most competitive returns around.

And backed by some straightforward and honest information.

There are even Passbook IRAs for those of you who want to get started without having to come up with $2,000 right away.

Just stop by any First of America Bank office and ask about our wide range of IRA investment options. Or call our toll-free number, 1-800-222-1983, for the most up-to-date information on our IRA rates.

After all, there's no one quite like you, so you should have an IRA that's different too.

FIRST OF AMERICA.
