

Finale

Ice cream egg tops it off

Easter is a joyous season that invites families to gather for a day of sharing. Whether for Easter brunch or late-day dinner, you want it to be special, including the dessert finale.

The traditional Easter egg inspired this Chocolate-Glazed Ice Cream Egg, easily molded in a melon mold or bowl. A delicious mixture of flaked coconut, chopped pecans and chocolate ice cream covers a layer of strawberry ice cream. All is frozen and later covered with a semi-sweet chocolate glaze. Finally, show your creative hand by making decorations with Fluffy Butter Cream Frosting.

CHOCOLATE-GLAZED ICE CREAM EGG

- 1/4 cup flake coconut
- 1 Tbsp. butter or margarine
- 1/4 cup chopped pecans
- 1 pint strawberry ice cream, softened
- 1 pint chocolate ice cream, softened
- Semi-Sweet Glaze
- Fluffy Butter Cream Frosting (or use commercial decorating icing)

Combine coconut, butter and pecans in skillet. Cook and stir until golden brown. Cool. Spoon strawberry ice cream into 4-cup melon mold or bowl. Fold coconut mixture into chocolate ice cream and spoon over strawberry ice cream. Freeze until firm, at least 4 hours or overnight. Dip mold briefly into warm water and unmold onto waxed paper. Return to freezer. Spread Semi-Sweet Glaze over ice cream mold to cover completely. Decorate with Fluffy Butter Cream Frosting, tinted if desired. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Semi-Sweet Glaze - Place 3 squares semi-sweet chocolate, 3 tablespoons water and 1 tablespoon butter in a saucepan. Stir constantly over low heat until chocolate is melted and mixture is smooth. Combine 1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar and dash of salt in small bowl. Gradually blend in chocolate mixture and 1/2 teaspoon vanilla. For thinner glaze, add a small amount of water. Makes about 1/2 cup glaze.

FLUFFY BUTTER CREAM FROSTING

- 6 Tbsp. butter or margarine
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 1 lb. (about 4 cups) sifted confectioners' sugar
- 2 egg whites, unbeaten
- 1 Tbsp. (about) milk

Cream butter with salt and vanilla. Add sugar alternately with egg whites, beating well after each addition. Add milk and beat until smooth and of spreading consistency. Tint as desired. Makes 2 1/2 cups frosting.

Make a mouthwatering meal of lamb

No matter how it's celebrated, one fact remains true. Easter is one of the most widely enjoyed holidays throughout the world.

People in areas such as Great Britain, Belgium, Italy, France, Greece and America celebrate Easter in a variety of ways. Many countries have parades, egg hunts, sunrise services - - - even dancing.

And what almost all the countries share in common is a mouthwatering assortment of foods. Lamb is the traditional meat of Easter and in many American homes, a fresh lamb dinner is the highlight of the day's festivities.

Celebrate this Easter with a succulent platter of Lamb Shoulder Chops with Raspberry Mint Sauce.

LAMB SHOULDER CHOPS WITH RASPBERRY MINT SAUCE

- 4-6 round bone or blade shoulder chops
- Flour
- Salt
- Pepper
- 1 Tbsp. butter
- 1 Tbsp. oil
- 2 shallots, minced
- 1 cup red raspberry fruit juice
- 1/2 tsp. dried mint leaves
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 1 stick cinnamon
- 1/4 cup raspberry vinegar
- 1/4 cup seedless red raspberry jam

Trim visible fat from lamb chops. Dust lamb with flour, salt and pepper. Brown on both sides in one tablespoon

Welcome the Easter holiday with lamb shoulder chops with raspberry mint sauce.

each butter and oil. Add shallots and saute until soft. Add raspberry fruit juice, mint, 1/4 teaspoon salt and cinnamon stick. Reduce heat, cover and simmer 45-60 minutes or until tender. Remove lamb chops and keep warm. Stir in vinegar and jam; stir until smooth. Reduce liquid until thickened and syrupy, about 10 minutes. Return lamb to sauce and serve. Garnish with fresh raspberries and mint leaves if desired. Makes 4-6 servings.

BEFORE CARVING a turkey or ham let the meat stand for twenty or thirty minutes. The meat will slice easier and thinner. Looking for money to help with the bill - read the Observer & Eccentric Classified Ads.
