

Jack Kemp to speak at area rally Saturday

Presidential contender Jack Kemp will speak at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at a rally in Livonia. The congressman from upstate New York will appear at a rally sponsored by the Michigan Opportunity Society (MOS) in the Waterman Center of Schoolcraft College, Haggerty south of Seven Mile, Livonia.

The free rally is open to the public. Visitors should use the north parking lot. The college is just west of the I-275/I-96 freeway. There will be music and refreshments.

MOS, chaired by Clark Durant III, is affiliated with the American Opportunity Society, a political action committee founded by Kemp.

A California native, Kemp was a quarterback with the Buffalo Bills of the American Football League in 1962-69 and was president of the players' union for five years.

Elected to the U.S. House in Presidential contender Jack Kemp in Detroit in 1980.

1970, Kemp has made economic policy his specialty.

Gov. Kean will speak to Oakland GOP

New Jersey Gov. Thomas H. Kean will be guest speaker for the April 18 reception of the Oakland Republican Committee's 300 Club. The reception will be from 5:30 to 8 p.m. in the Pinewood Country Club, 8600 PGA Drive, Walled Lake. Tickets cost $50 per person or $86 per couple. For reservations, contact Republican headquarters at 338-1133.

Kean won reelection with 70 percent of the vote. He is noted for being a GOP candidate who captured votes in black inner city neighborhoods. Kean got 60 percent of the black vote in his recent re-election.

Krohner runs for judge

Martin Krohner, a Farmington Hills attorney, will launch his bid for Oakland circuit judge with a fund-raiser next week. One non-partisan judgeship is open on the Nov. 4 ballot.

An assistant Wayne County prosecutor for 13 years, Krohner was the Democratic candidate for Oakland County prosecutor in 1980.

He is legal adviser to MADD (Mothers Against Drunk Driving), a co-founder of that group in the state and founder and former president of the Oakland County MADD chapter.

The fund-raiser will run from 5 to 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 9, in Wabek Country Club, Bloomfield Hills. For information, call 681-4499.

Krohner's experience includes serving as a staff attorney for Michigan Consolidated Gas Co., a family law attorney for the Oakland County Legal Aid Society and as clerk to Oakland Probate Judge Eugene Arthur Moore.

He is a member of the national, state and county bar associations where he has served on committees involved with criminal law, juvenile problems and spouse abuse.
