Why these people bring their cars to Uncle Ed's.

Having your oil changed and fluids filled regularly is a good idea.
It saves on fuel and repairs. Having Uncle Ed's do it is a great idea.
These three ordinary citizens can tell you why.

John Fastrack

"I'm in the race to succeed, and I resent anyone or anything that puts me on the sidelines. At Uncle Ed's, I can bring my car in at my convenience, no appointment necessary. They service my car and have me back on the road in 10 minutes. That means more time to add up lots of columns of numbers, attend plenty of One Minute Management seminars, learn all the current business trends, even work for the perfect pin-striped suit. Uncle Ed's helps me make every minute count."

Helen Doright

"I like Uncle Ed's because his crew does things the way they ought to be done — perfectly. They work hard. Uncle Ed tells them, 'Remember — if you guys want to sleep at night, you don't just do it fast, you do it right.' They must sleep like babies. And when I first pulled into Uncle Ed's, I said to myself, 'Self, is this his shoppe or his living room?' It's so neat and clean."

Joe Sportell

"That Uncle Ed must be a great coach. His team serviced my car in under 10 minutes — I timed it with the trusty stopwatch. And by golly, they did everything with such skill and teamwork, it brought tears to my eyes. Gave me a 'Top North Service' card, too, so I can bring my car in before 1,000 more miles and have the fluids checked and filled free. Uncle Ed's really goes that extra nine yards."
