

Evangelista-Haugen

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Evangelista of Farmington Hills announce the engagement of their daughter, Catherine Marie, to Leigh Neil Haugen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Haugen of West Bloomfield.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of North Farmington High School and is now attending Madonna College where she will receive her degree in nursing next spring. Her fiancé is a graduate of North Farmington High School and a student at Oakland Community College, employed as a computer programmer.

An August wedding is planned in Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church, in Farmington.

Nedrow-Yoder

Mrs. Charles A. Nedrow of Farmington Hills announces the engagement of her daughter Julie Ann to Jeffrey Wayne Yoder, son of Joyce Snyder and Ezra Yoder, of Englewood, Colo.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of North Farmington High School and a student at University of Northern Colorado in Greeley. Her fiancé graduated from University of Northern Colorado with a degree in computer science.

A September wedding is planned in Foothold Covenant Church in Farmington Hills.

Tyler-Schueler

Sally Schueler and Dr. Scott Tyler were married June 14 in Lutheran Church of the Redeemer in Birmingham. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schueler of Farmington Hills and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Tyler of Lathrup Village.

The bride wore an ivory colored gown of English tulle fashioned with applied lace and pearls. Her headpiece was a crown of pearls and her flowers were ivory roses.

Lisa Conaway served as matron of honor with bridesmaids, Cindy Schueler, Peggy Tyler, Susan Dotterer and Julie McGregor, who wore ivory colored gowns while they carried pink roses.

Dr. Brian Tyler served as best man with groomsmen William Schueler, William Eagan, David McDonald and Kenneth Tiseo.

The bride is graduate of Michigan State University, employed as a designer for Stiel Case Furniture, in Merchandise Mart, Chicago, Ill. The groom is a graduate of University of Michigan Dental School and will specialize in orthodontics while attending Northwestern University in Illinois.

Fash Bash '86 coming in August

Fash Bash '86, a salute to art and fashion benefiting the Detroit Institute of Arts, is set for Aug. 13 in the fourth level ballroom of Westin Hotel, Renaissance Center.

"The new August date should be a refreshing splash in the summer heat for the 3,000-plus Fash Bash attendees," said Karen and John Schultes of Grosse Pointe Park, chairpersons of this 17th annual DIA fund-raiser sponsored by Founders Junior Council and Hudson's.

"Each year the monies raised at Fash Bash, last year more than $65,000, enable Founders Junior Council to make significant contributions to DIA acquisitions and projects."

Gregory F. Gibson, Hudson's store group vice president, is looking forward to "bringing art and fashion together for one dynamic evening, which reflects Hudson's commitment to the DIA and our community."

Tax-deductible tickets at $20 are now available at the DIA Ticket Office and at Hudson's and other Ticket World outlets.

Cocktails begin at 5 p.m., and the evening will progress with music, dancing, food and refreshments, under the direction of guest hosts Doris Biscoe and Rich Fisher, WXYZ-TV news anchors.

Hudson's fall fashion extravaganza at 7 p.m. will combine Oval Room fashions from such designers as Calvin Klein, Ralph Lauren, Anne Klein and Adrienne Vittadini in addition to the latest trend merchandise for men and women.

On top of watching the fashion show by Hudson's — and the one put on by the crowd — the silent auction returns with more than 300 items ranging in value from $25 to several thousand dollars, including art work, jewelry, trips and things to do.

Ernest DuMouchelle of DuMouchelle will take the stage at 8:15 p.m. to auction off exciting ranging from a month in a dream car to shopping spree and gourmet dining, women's glamour, men's auction and workout packages.

Throughout the evening, winners will be drawn for the multiple prizes in the expanded Fash Bash raffie, with tickets at $2 each or three for $5.

Principle committees are headed by Diane and Douglas Dossin of Grosse Pointe; Ann and Robert Greenstone of Birmingham; Sue and Alan Kaufman of Bloomfield Hills; Cara Kazanowski of Orchard Lake; Stanford Krandall of Farmington Hills; Teresa Fulda of Dearborn; Tamara and Jerry Wagner of Grosse Pointe Woods and Michael Zitek of Birmingham.

Basic cadet training begins for FHS graduate

Kristofor R. Norman, son of Robert and Linnea Norman of Farmington Hills, has received a Congressional appointment from U.S. Sen. Carl Levin to attend the U.S. Air Force Academy.

Lt. Col. Dick Czarnota, an academy representative, presented the appointment during Farmington High School Honors Assembly.

Norman graduated fourth in his class and was competing against approximately 15,000 high school seniors nationwide for this award. He plans to major in aeronautical engineering and become a military pilot.

Along with 1,400 classmates in the class of 1990, he began basic cadet training July 1 in Colorado Springs, Colo. The training is preparation for the four years of intense military and academic training at the academy culminating in a bachelor of science degree and a commission in the U.S. Air Force.

Two Michigan-based companies have broken ground for a 54-acre mixed use complex in Livonia. Mayor Edward H. McNamara, along with Schostak Brothers and Jacobson's, launched the future Laurel Park Place on the site at Six Mile and Newburgh Road, east of I-275.

The complex will encompass more than 850,000 square feet, consisting of hotels, office buildings and a retail center. The proposed mall features Jacobson's 11th Michigan store as a prime attraction for other quality retailers.

"We are confident Laurel Park Place will be recognized as the town center of Livonia," said Robert Schostak, vice president of Schostak Brothers. "The project is certain to enhance Livonia's business sector, commerce and tourism trade."

Laurel Park Place was named after the historic laurel tree. Greek mythology held the laurel to be a symbol of prestige, honor and uncompromised beauty. As part of the ground-breaking ceremony, a seven-foot laurel tree was planted on the site to signify Schostak Brothers' commitment to quality development in the community. Eventually, the tree will be transplanted to an indoor atrium on the finished property.

Blazek-Haberkamp

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Blazek of Farmington Hills announce the engagement of their daughter, Joanne Helen, to Thomas William Haberkamp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas Haberkamp of Rochester.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Wayne State University, employed as a contract designer for R. P. Lewis Co. in Birmingham. Her fiancé is a graduate of Ferris State University, employed by Chrysler Corp.

A fall wedding is planned.
