Hills explains city budget surplus cause for concern, according to city officials.

The Detroit News' recent listing of running in red, survey reveals," in the Tuesday, July 1, edition of The garding expenditures exceeding revenues in 1985-86 - and was forced to use yearting revenues in 1985-86 and was forced to use yearting revenues of Stational League of Cities survey – is of little

With the city council's knowledge, Rosch sald, $301,40 in surplus funds was used to balance the 1985-86 budget. "But that doesn't mean you're fiscally irresponsible." he said.
Despite reference to Farmington Hills in The Detroit News article, the city is not operating in the red, Rosch said.

THE NLC issued a survey in January 1986 to determine cities financial experiences, based on general fund information, said Doug Peterson, NLC political analyst.

The four-part survey was designed to gauge revenue sharing and determine cities financial conditions. The survey's unresponse uses alter on call it.

The trip is from Sunday, Aug. 17, through Sunday, Aug. 24. The cost is $300 per hiker and includes all meals, tents, stoves and water filters, as well as transportation from Novi. Space is limited to 15 people; early registration is recommine erites inancial condutors. The survey's purpose was also to call at-tention to cittus' financial experienc-es in light of cuts in federal funding and whether tax reforms would af-fect municipal borrowing. Peterson eath
