Included will be scenes from the Straits area shoreline, the Mackinac Bridge, Sleeping Bear Dunes as well as flowers and wildlife.

ART GALLERY OF WINDSOR

Paintings by E. Caven Atkins of Birmingham are on display in the new third-floor gallery. A bonus is the relationship of Atkins paintings to German Expressionism which is clearly evident. Atkins had a one-man show at the museum about seven years ago. He was born in Canada and much of his work is based upon the years he lived there, but he's extremely versatile in approach and technique. Hours 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Tuesday-Saturday, until 9 p.m. Wednesday and 1-5 p.m. Sunday, 445 Riverside Drive W., Windsor.

PARK WEST GALLERIES

Rembrandt Etchings, formerly the collection of the Los Angeles County Museum of Fine Art, are on display. Hours are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday-Wednesday, until 9 p.m. Thursday and Friday and 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, 29469 Northwestern, Southfield.

briefly speaking

TWO PAINTINGS by watercolorist Michael Patrick Neal, formerly of Livonia, were selected for inclusion in Michigan Water Color Society's 40th annual exhibition recently in St. Joseph, Mich. Both paintings were also chosen for the traveling exhibition, which will tour Michigan museums and art centers, many of them in northern Michigan, until the end of the year. Neal attended Clarenceville High School and Schoolcraft College. He resides in Elmira, Mich.

THE AIR will resound with the spirit of the Highland Bagpipes 9 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 2, when the 137th annual St. Andrews Society Highland Games get under way at historic Fort Wayne on Detroit's riverfront. More than 15 pipe bands from Michigan and Ontario, including the renowned St. Andrews Society Pipe Band, will appear in massed band formations and compete individually throughout the day, along with more than 200 pipers, drummers and Highland dancers. Tickets for the entire day are $5 for adults and $2 for children under 12. Those attending the games that day will be able to visit the entire Fort Wayne complex. Picnic lunches are encouraged.

KATHLEEN Crombie of Garden City was among the 72 artists in Basketweave, a national contemporary and traditional exhibition of more than 250 baskets, held recently in Athens, Ohio, and sponsored by the Dairy Barn Southeastern Ohio Cultural Arts Center. Her entry was entitled "Cubby Hole" and was fashioned from wild grapevine bark, willow, jute, round reed and philodendron sheaths. Also in the exhibition was a basket called "Positive Reaction," of wild grapevine bark, locust bark, fern ash bark and kooboo rattan.

ANCIENT Terracottas:

Lasting Impressions of the Distant Past will be on display until Sept. 28 in the Kelsey Museum of Archaeology at the University of Michigan. The special exhibition features approximately 160 moldmade terracottas (basket clay objects formed from molds) from various parts of the Classical world and the ancient Near East dating from the fifth century B.C. to the fourth century A.D. Museum hours are 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday-Friday; 1-4 p.m. Saturday-Sunday. There is no admission fee.

WAYNE State University Press will soon publish a unique university-based international journal of art history which features articles on the history and culture of Western Asia written by some of the world's leading scholars. The "Bulletin of the Asia Institute," according to art historian and editor Carol Altman Bromberg of Birmingham, is one of the few journals of its kind to carry such scholarly works. "This journal puts Wayne State in the spotlight from Japan to Russia," she said. Bromberg, along with WSU art history Professor Bernard Goldman and Professor Richard Frye of Harvard University, is editing the journal with a $15,000 grant from the J. Paul Getty Trust. Publication is set for February 1987.

MATERIAL Evidence:

New Color Techniques Handmade Furniture, a unique furniture exhibition, has opened at the Midland Art Council Galleries in Midland Center for the Arts. The exhibition is traveling under the auspices of Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Service. The Midland Center for the Arts is located at 1891 W. St. Andrews. Admission and parking are free and the gallery hours are 1-5 p.m. Monday through Sunday and 5-9 p.m. on Thursdays.

save energy

Do not put up with dripping hot-water faucets. You wouldn't want to pay to heat 23,000 gallons of water and pour it down the drain... yet that's what happens in a year's time with just a drip a second.
