Plaza Fest winds up with 'biggest and best'

The City of Southfield will close out its 1986 Plaza Fest concert series with the "biggest and best" show yet 8-8 p.m. Friday, Aug. 22, on the Civic Center Plaza, 26000 Evergreen. The evening will feature the Latin Jazz of Francisco Mora and the comedy of The Ron Coden Show.

Coden has taken his comic style on tours through Michigan, North Dakota, South Dakota, Canada and California, opening for such acts as Doc Severenson and The Irish Rovers and he has appeared with Gabe Kaplan, Steve Martin, Lily Tomellyn, Jimmy Walker and Galtier. For eight years he was a star of the nationally syndicated TV show "Hot Pudge," and in his career he has visited more than 200 colleges across the U.S.

Mora is a percussionist, composer and arranger who has studied at the National Music School University of Mexico, Berklee College of Music and the Center for Afro-American Artists. He has appeared in concerts and clubs, on TV and radio and has done studio recordings in both Mexico and the U.S. Most recently he has been performing with his group "Amigo Latin Jazz."

The free concert is the last in this year's Plaza Fest series, which has been co-sponsored by the City of Southfield's Parks and Recreation Department, The Music Performance Trust Fund and the American Federation of Musicians in cooperation with The Detroit Federation of Musicians.

Everyone in and around Southfield is invited to enjoy what promises to be an entertaining evening.

Bring lawn chairs to the outdoor concert.

Donna Lynn Barron and Robert John Sayig II, both of Livonia, were married recently at Academy of the Sacred Heart Chapel in Bloomfield Hills.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Barron of Livonia. He is the son of Bob Sayig of Livonia and Marlene Sayig of Florida.

The Rev. Edward Prus performed the ceremony.

The bride's sister, Linda Barron, served as the maid of honor. The bride's attendants included Jacqueline Lily, Robin Sayig and Laura Terranova.

The groom's father, Bob Sayig, served as best man. The groom's attendants included Bill Terlecky, Hugh Larkin and Jeff Puccio.

The bride wore a long-sleeve white silk organza gown with embroidery and appliques with ruffled chapel-length train. The head piece was made of lilacs of the valley with silk organza cascades.

Following a reception at the Birmingham Country Club, the couple honeymooned in Hawaii. They live in Livonia.

The bride is a graduate of Madonna College. She is employed as a registered nurse at William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak.

Her husband is employed at the Android Corp.

DON'T PAINT YOUR RADIATORS

While steam & hot water upright radiators are the most efficient heating systems, they are ugly & obtrusive. Paint radiators reduces heating efficiency. Vibration enclosures, pool heat exchangers, split, crane or crane.

Makeup make over available via video

People who are unsure about how to apply and accomplish a new make-up look can now engage in a personalized professional instructive video.

Tamara Institute De Beaute in Farmington Hills is the first beauty institute in metro Detroit to introduce personalized Face Image Video cassette tapes to women who need and want to learn how to apply and accomplish a new look. Each client will be filmed on video before her corrective makeup is applied.

Private step-by-step instructions in skin care and make-up applications for the individual will be performed by one of Tamara's beauty experts and filmed on video for each client to review at any time in their own home.

Personalized instructions make it extremely easy to recreate the look captured by Tamara's makeup artists.

Tamara Institute De Beaute is at 32480 Northwestern Highway. The telephone number is 855-0474.
