CHAPTER PRESIDENT

Dan Patrell was selected president of the Michigan State University chapter of the Public Relations Student Society of America (PRSSA) for the 1986-87 school year.

The 1983 North Farmington High School graduate received the responsibility in May. He is entering his senior year at MSU and is studying public relations within the communication department.

Patrell has spent the past three years at MSU. Last year, he was the student liaison between the PRSSA and its parent organization, the Public Relations Society of America. Making sure the pre-professional organization runs smoothly is one of his main concerns for next year.

PRSSA works for college students interested in public relations by hosting speakers, getting internships for students, organizing public relations campaigns that students may actually work and many other activities, all aimed to provide students with public relations experience.
