U.S. Constitution Week

The new display in Farmington Hills Branch Library in observance of U.S. Constitution Week (Sept. 17-23), was arranged by Jean Jambas (at left), young adult librarian, and members of Quakerdown Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution Rebecca Davis and Sondra Love. The display is an annual event and so is a gift to the library from the chapter. The gift this year is the third volume of the DAR Patriotic Index and a supplement to the 2nd Volume of the series for the library's genealogy section. The display remains throughout the month. Davis is the chapter's regent for the coming term.

Monday, Sept. 22: "The Grieving Process," talk by Dr. Ron Walker of Mount Carmel Hospital and Macomb Community College, at 7 p.m. in ist Forum of Birmingham Temple, in the temple, 28611 12 Mile Road. Admission for non-members is $3 at the door.

Cornerstone of freedom

Our Constitution, the cornerstone of our freedoms, was written to protect every American from the abuse of power by government. Without the determination to restrain the excesses of political power, our Republic will perish. The Quakerdown chapter Daughters of the American Revolution urges that we study the value of public service during Constitution Week (Sept. 17-23). Today's problems call for the highest character of leadership. Know your Constitution.
