

Tombo sought for Bailey murder trial

By Daniel Grantham
Special writer

Defense attorneys for Ronald Bailey have stepped up their efforts to locate former Northville psychiatrist Dr. Jose Tombo, after claiming last week that he is responsible for the mental state that led Bailey to abduct and murder 13-year-old Shawn Moore.

Livingston County Circuit Judge

Stanley Laitreille has scheduled a hearing Tuesday morning to discuss the defense's efforts to call Tombo to testify in Bailey's trial.

Bailey, 27, of Livonia is charged with abducting the 13-year-old Moore Aug. 31, 1985, in Green Oak Township, taking him to a cabin in Gladwin County and murdering him.

Tombo's treatment of Bailey is expected to figure prominently in the case after defense attorneys last week blamed the psychiatrist for creating the mental state that led their client to abduct and murder Moore.

During opening arguments on Thursday, Charles Murphy, one of the attorneys representing Bailey, told the court his client will admit that he kidnapped and murdered the 13-year-old.

AS A crowd of about 70 spectators, including Bailey's father and Moore's family listened, Murphy told the court the insanity that caused Bailey to commit the crimes was created by Tombo.

"I'm not going to tell you that Ronald Bailey didn't do it, and if he did do it, he was insane," Murphy said. "We admit the fact that Ronald Bailey killed Shawn Moore."

Instead, Murphy told the jury of nine men and five women, the defense will show that Bailey was driven insane after being forced into a homosexual affair with Tombo after being placed under his care while at the Northville Psychiatric Center, 1975-78.

That insanity has also led Bailey to believe that he is possessed by the devil, Murphy said.

"This boy over here, Ronald Bailey, was treated in Northville by Dr. Tombo, that much like Dr. Frankenstein, he created a monster much for his own gratification," Murphy said. "It is our contention that Dr. Tombo destroyed this man's sanity for his own deviant sexual purposes."

Tombo was fired from the Northville center last fall following allegations by several patients, including Bailey, that he sexually abused them.

Tombo has denied those charges and is appealing his firing.
