

Transition time for Carol Wald

Carol Wald, who's had many an art show in the metro area, while becoming an internationally known illustrator, has a show opening in New York next Tuesday. While it is being held at the Society of Illustrators Museum of American Illustration, 128 E.

63 St., New York City, it, like her other work, is as much fine art as illustration. Shown above is "Young Artist" and below is "Affinities." Wald now has her studio in the Scarab Club of Detroit after working and living in New York City.

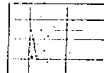

USE GLYCERIN or vinegar instead of water when mixing plaster of Paris. This prevents rapid drying. Need room around the house? Sell a few items in the Overlook & Economic Classified Ad section of your hometown newspaper.

If You've Got A Penchant For Perfection...

...living at Bingham Pointe. This Robertson Brothers Co. community, with its 1,100 units, is a premier development in the area.

From the country setting, yet city conveniences are only minutes away. Architects for this project selected classic European designs, enhance the total environment. And, the attention to detail, always evident in a Robertson Brothers development, are conspicuous throughout. Bingham Pointe is unmistakably ANOTHER ROBERTSON BROTHERS COMMUNITY.
