

Polish embroidery is workshop topic

The third in a series of Polish handicraft workshops, sponsored by the Friends of Polish Art, will be held on Saturday, Sept. 27, in the Polish Room on the main floor of Manogian Hall at Wayne State University, Warren and Third, Detroit.

From 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Grazyna Kozacka of Cazenovia College of New York will present a slide-lecture on Polish embroidery, concentrating on embroidery of costumes of various regions.

From 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. she will demonstrate how to do the embroidery. Participants should bring six-inch embroidery hoops and small scissors. Embroidery floss and material will be provided.

She is the author of many articles and three books on Polish embroidery, has a master's in English from Jagiellonian University in Krakow and is teaching English composition at Cazenovia College in Cazenovia, N.Y.

For reservations, call 1-782-4915.

2 local galleries in Chicago exhibit

Two local galleries, Habitat Galleries of Southfield and Yaw Gallery of Birmingham, are participating in the first Chicago International New Art Forms Exposition, Friday-Monday at Chicago's Navy Pier.

In all, there will be 40 art dealers from Europe and North America showing innovative works of art.

*There will be a strong emphasis on three-dimensional art — electrical art, holograms — things new to the art world," said Ferdinand Hampson, owner of Habitat of Southfield.

The $75 per person opening night benefit is 5:30-10 p.m. Thursday and hours are noon to 6 p.m. Friday, Saturday and Sunday and noon to 6 p.m. Monday.

Jazz giants

Mill Hinton, regarded as the dean of jazz bass players, is also a photographer of the "giants" of the jazz world. An exhibit of his work is at Somerset Mall from Tuesday through Oct. 5. Shown is the great singer Billie Holiday, taken during her last recording session. The exhibit is part of the Mall's grand opening benefit for Orchestra Hall on Saturday, Sept. 27.

No charge for the exhibit.
