

People: They help to make cable TV work

Just who is this Norm Callin?

Norm is a Farmington Hills resident who has been selected by the Tri-Outlet Production team to bring a smile to our television viewing audience. Norm and his wife, Anita, have promised us that we will learn of weather as we have never done before.

Norm and Anita have been part of our television team since our first introductory workshops. They took classes together with the intent to pursue comedy.

I remember our first conversation as they were so concerned that comedy may not be an acceptable form of expression for our community channel.

I blessed them for their interest, for as we are becoming more and more aware of our potential, we also are recognizing how stress travels with increased momentum. A healthy sense of humor not only eases tension but also has proven historically to have longevity in television. Remember Uncle Miltie and Lucille Ball?

Throughout the past several years, Norm has appeared as commentator on his own programs, been a game show host for "Duel of Knowledge" and provided comedy relief for our awards ceremony, teaming up with Roger Helms and Anita Callin.

As with even the most sophisticated weather equipment and education, the predictions are, at best, tenuous. Norm does not like to be wrong.

He will educate, challenge trivia, provide the up-to-date indoor weather philosophy from various points in our cities as well as ask for requests for weather.

GIVE TO YOUR PET CHARITY.

It's a shame the Michigan Humane Society has to exist at all. The sad truth is, however, that every day thousands of animals are abandoned or abused. And the number isn't getting smaller. It's increasing. And so are our expenses. The expenses that let us provide shelter, love and medical care for those innocent victims. Not to mention the expense of investigating and prosecuting hundreds of severe cruelty cases a year.

Please send a donation to the Michigan Humane Society so that we can continue this work.

Imagine how good that will make some poor animal feel. Imagine how good it will make you feel.

Give to the Michigan Humane Society.
