Women's club hosts a home party

Women of North Farmington will host representatives of Daren's Bags and Christmas Around the World at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 10, in Mulwood Apartment on 14 Mile.

"We can seat about 150 there for the evening that will be exactly the same as any home-party," said Ann Oppenhauser, a longtime member of the club which mixes social pleasures with the business of planning fund-raisers to support local charities.

Women of North Farmington's fund-raising mastay is its annual Millionaire's Party.

"But periodic fund-raisers are planned when something good comes along," Oppenhauser said. "We think these are two outstanding home-party companies that will help us boost our gifts to the community this year."

A percentage of all sales at the party have been earmarked to support Farmington Area Advisory Council, Community Living Centers and Meals on Wheels.

Admission is $1 at the door, which includes coffee and dessert. Guests are asked to use the Drake Road entrance nearest to Grand River to enter the Mulwood Apartment complex.
