

You Can Meet Candidates In 6 Races

Many Observerland congressional and legislative candidates have been invited to a "meet your candidates" night Thursday, Oct. 22, at 8 p.m. in the Schoolcraft College liberal arts auditorium. The program is free to the public.

Sponsor is the Northville-Plymouth chapter of the League of Women Voters, a non-partisan organization headed by Mrs. William McAninch.

CANDIDATES, in six races have been invited: 19th Congressional District-Rep. Jack McDonald (R-Farmington) and Fred L. Harris (D-Farmington). The district also includes Redford Township, Livonia and the City of Northville.

The 2nd Congressional District-Rep. Marvin Esch (R-Ann Arbor) and Michael Stillwagon (D-Ann Arbor). The district includes Plymouth city and township and Northville Township.

14th State Senate District-Carl Pursell (R-Plymouth) and Paul Kadish (D-Livonia). The district also includes Northville, and Farmington.

35th State House District-Rep. Marvin Stempien (D-Livonia) and Robert F. Swanson (R-Livonia). The district also includes the Northville community.

36th State House District-Rep. James Tierney (D-Garden City) and Mrs. Jacquelyn Boelter (Rice) (R-Canton Township). The district also includes the northwestern part of Westland and the Plymouth Community.

26th Wayne County Commission District-Harvey Moelke (R-Livonia) and John McCann (D-Livonia). The district also includes Plymouth, Northville and Canton Township.

Kroger Makes Area Residents Appointments Attend DePauw

A Westland resident is among three new appointments made by the Kroger Co., 12701 Middle Belt Rd., Livonia.

Gerald Schular, of 6344 Westland Dr., has been named assistant grocery buyer. He was in the company's personnel department.

Tom Shurtliff, of East Detroit, has been named grocery merchandising representative. He was a store manager and has been on special assignment.

Ellis Tripp, formerly of the firm's Chicago division, has been named produce merchandising representative.

Two Observerland residents are among students enrolled for fall classes at DePauw University, Greencastle, Ind.

They are Jack Haynes, graduate student, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Haynes, 2841 Beech Hill, Farmington, and David Dunlap, special student, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dunlap, 760 Burroughs, Plymouth.

Haynes graduated from University of Detroit High School and Dunlap earned his diploma from Plymouth High School.

Bond To Speak At Schoolcraft

Georgia State Rep. Julian Bond, leader of an insurgent group successful in unseating Georgia's regular delegation to the 1968 Democratic National Convention, will present two lectures at Schoolcraft College on Thursday, Oct. 15.

He will also be remembered as the young Negro nominated at the convention for vice president, but who withdrew his name from consideration because of his age.

Bond will speak on the topic, "Collision Course in a Divided America," at 3 p.m. and at 8 p.m. in the Waterman Campus Center.

Now 30, Bond was first elected to the Georgia House of Representatives in 1966. He was prevented from taking his seat by house members angered over his statements about the war in Vietnam.

Bond won two additional elections to fill his own vacancy before the U.S. Supreme Court ruled he was entitled to his seat. He took the oath of office and became a member of the Georgia House on Jan. 9, 1967.

While a student at Morehouse College in Atlanta, Bond helped found the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). In 1961, he left college for a full-time position with SNCC, a job which took him to civil rights drives and voter registration campaigns in Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Arkansas.

Bond's appearance at Schoolcraft is sponsored by the Cultural Affairs Committee. It marks a belated beginning for the lecture series which was to have been launched with Army General Maxwell Taylor, ret., Sept. 10.

The lectures are free to Schoolcraft students and faculty. A charge of $2 at the door is required of the general public, and there is a special $1 student rate.

An exception to the weekend hours announced, the library will be closed on Saturdays and Sundays which fall during vacation and holiday periods.

Non-students are generally not accorded book borrowing privileges, but the library offers great resources and facilities for on-site use in study, research and browsing.

Fall MERCHANDISE

Thousands of little elves have descended on Plymouth, splashing this lovely colonial city with autumn color. If you enjoy shopping in an atmosphere of beauty, where the merchandise matches the season's abundance and quality, Plymouth is the place to visit. There are new fall fashions and as many gift ideas as there are autumn leaves. Who knows, if you aren't too busy buying the wonderful merchandise Plymouth merchants have ordered especially for you, you may spot an elf or two.

KAY'S OF PLYMOUTH

If you have a charming, shy Libra personality on your birthday gift list, Kay's will help you find just what she'll love. Libra women, born between September 24 and October 23, love to play hostess to large groups of friends. So, what could be more appreciated by these gracious ladies than a hostess gown from Kay's. Actually, you don't have to be shopping for anyone special to shop at Kay's. Every sign in the Zodiac will be delighted with this distinctive shop's selection of fine feminine apparel. Libra or Leo — there is only one sure sign and it's on West Ann Arbor Trail — Kay's of Plymouth.
