

Fun with scarecrows

A scarecrow contest for the young and young at heart will take place at the Farmington Historical Museum, 33805 Grand River, Saturday, Oct. 25. A cash prize will go to the overall grand-prize winner; additional prizes will go to categorical winners. Register 1-5 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 22. Entries will be placed on the grounds for public viewing. Judging is scheduled for 2 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 25. Figures should remain until Wednesday, Oct. 29. Scarecrows should be made in the conventional manner on an upright stake or cross or designed to be seated in the Gazebo. Call Nancy Leonard (above, with friends in the Gazebo), 476-4125, or Sally Blomquist, 477-0835.
