Raiders fend off Spartan charge

girls basketball

Road victories have not come easy for the North Farmington girls basketball team this season. Thus, North was in good cheer following a tough 46-42 win at Livonia Stevenson Thursday.

"When you play on the road it's always tough," said North coach Greg Capling. "I don't care who you are playing."

North jumped ahead 16-6 after a quarter, then held on as Stevenson mounted a rally in the final quarter. The Spartans pulled within a basket, 44-42, with 45 seconds left. But North's Rory Tulamini drained a shot with 20 seconds left to secure the win.

Jean Anzlovar and Mo O'Brien had big nights for the Raiders. Both scored 10 points. Anzlovar contributed eight assists and O'Brien eight steals. Suzi Butcher and Sandy Spahn each scored eight points.

Sue Zatorski scored 18 for Stevenson (3-10).

North is 5-5 in the Western Lakes, 6-7 overall.

JOHN GLENN 81, FARMINGTON 21: Westland John Glenn cut the Falcons no slack Thursday. The Rockets led 29-2 after the first quarter and kept the pressure on.

Melissa Smiley led Glenn with 14 points. Five Rockets scored in double figures.

Carrie Hale scored five for Farmington (1-9 in the WLAA, 1-12 overall).

FRANKLIN 56, HARRISON 23: Gayle Cheadle scored 13 to lead Livonia Franklin past Farmington Harrison Thursday.

Tracey Radke scored 10 for Harrison and Lesley Devine added six.

"I saw a great deal of improvement from Harrison over the first time we played them," said Franklin coach Dan Freeman, whose team is 4-6 in the Western Lakes, 4-8 overall.

Harrison is 0-12.

North nipped in pool thriller

If it's possible to feel good in defeat, the North Farmington girls swim team ought to be ecstatic.

State-ranked Livonia Stevenson served the Raiders their first defeat of the season Thursday in an 88-84 thriller. Five North pool records were set in the meet, three by North swimmers.

"We had three of our better swimmers out of the water," said North coach Pat Duthie. "That hurt us a bit. But the kids were great. I'm very pleased with our kids."

North won six of the 11 events, but the Spartans' talent was just too deep for the Raiders.

Jennifer Rowe flashed her All-Area skills. She won both the 200-yard freestyle (1:57.51) and the 500 freestyle (5:06.16). Both times she established pool records and in both cases she topped her own mark.

North's Marge Cramer eclipsed the 100 freestyle record held by Churchill's Audra Martin with a 54.95.

Stevenson's Sheila Taormina got into the record breaking act setting a new 200 individual medley mark (2:11.63) and 100 butterfly mark (1:00.06).

"We haven't had records set like that in one meet in a long time," Duthie said.

Other winners for North were Kim Heller in diving (156.35), Cindy Cramer in the 100 breaststroke (1:11.10) and Marge Cramer, Laurie Oswald, Rowe and Cindy Cramer won the 400 freestyle relay (3:50.19).

Stevenson got firsts from Ann Bollinger in the 50 free (25.67), Amy Harrison in the 100 backstroke (1:07.81) and Bollinger, Carolyn Schwedt, Lisa Compos and Maureen Sudek took the 200 medley relay in 1:59.84.

North is 6-1 on the season, Stevenson 5-2.

WESTLAND JOHN GLENN won nine of 11 events against Farmington Thursday. But Farmington won the meet, 88-84.

"Glenn doesn't have a lot of depth," said Falcon coach Ross Bandy. "But they have a lot of talent. Our depth pulled us through. We cleaned up on the thirds and fourths."

Lauren Weary won the 100 butterfly for Farmington (1:03.6) and she teamed with Katie Hohl, Lori Kiel and Stacy Schalm to win the 200 medley relay (2:04.9).

Glenn got double wins from Kelly Taylor and Julie Jensen. Taylor won both the 200 free (2:06.4) and the 100 free (1:00.9). Jensen took the 200 IM (2:22.2) and the 100 backstroke (1:06.8).

Other Glenn firsts were recorded by Kelly Ericson in 50 free (26.6), Sandy Anger in diving (203.0), Karen Taylor in the 500 free (5:37.93) and Jenny DeBrincat in the 100 breaststroke (1:17.2).

Ericson, Kelly Taylor, Karen Taylor and Jensen won the 400 freestyle relay in 4:02.42.

Farmington is 3-2.

Mercy streak ends

The 21-year Farmington Hills Mercy dual meet win streak came to a quiet and exepected halt last Saturday.

State power Ann Arbor Pioneer topped the Marlins 101-71.

"It was no big deal," said first-year Marlins coach Paul Schroeder. "We had 24 lifetime best times on Saturday. I certainly can't complain. Pioneer is a powerhouse."

Mercy got back on the winning track Wednesday beating Catholic League rival Royal Oak Shrine 46-32 at Mercy's five-lane pool.

Jenny Olmstead won the 50-yard freestyle for Mercy in 28.4. Marie Olson won the diving (184.75 points). Liz DeMattia took the 100 butterfly (1:05.88), Becky Wiquist the 500 free (5:29.07) and Ann Lang the 100 breaststroke (1:19.1).

Karen Neyer, DeMattia, Amy Cetnar and Olmstead won the 200 medley relay in 2:07.19.

Mercy is 5-1 overall, 1-0 in the league.

Churchill boots North

It's tough to make much noise in the Class A state soccer tournament when you face the No. 1-ranked team in the pre-districts.

Such was North Farmington's fate Wednesday, as Livonia Churchill ousted the Raiders 5-1.

"We played real flat," said North coach Cathy Cole. "We were real fired up to play but Churchill got a penalty kick early. That first goal seemed to take something away from us. It's no excuse, really, but it kind of broke the guys' hearts."

Sophomore Khaled Zeidan scored twice for the Chargers (16-0-1). Torin Gniewek, Brian Thomas and Pete Alexander also scored for Churchill.

Jon Houser scored North's lone goal. The Raiders fall to 11-5-1 on the season, three of the losses were to Churchill.

CATHOLIC CENTRAL 4, GRAND BLANC 2: Redford Catholic Central won a pair of boys soccer games last week.

On Thursday, the Shamrocks raised their season mark to 10-4-4 with a 4-2 non-league triumph over Grand Blanc in a match at Livonia's Jaycee Park.

On Wednesday, CC downed Dearborn Edsel Ford, 3-0, behind two Craig Thiel goals in a pre-district game.

Thiel, notching his 11th of the season, tallied the game-winner with only one minute left in the first half against Grand Blanc. Jason Ries assisted on the goal.

In the second half, the Brown brothers, Aaron and Jeff teamed up for an insurance goal.

Jeff also scored on a 40-yard direct kick and Aaron tallied CC's first goal during first-half action.
