

Ghosts, goblins turn up at Woodcreek

Unease of her new "makoup" after having her face painted, Tiffany Suekoff, 6, wrinkles her nose at herself in the mirror.

The school's Halloween parade was led by the Good Witch.

PAINTED GOBLINS and pumpkins ripe for the picking were part of the Woodcreek Elementary Pumpkin Fair Oct. 25 at the Farmington Hills school.

Designed as a community activity for all ages, the fair began in 1980 as an annual pumpkin sale and PTO fund-raiser, serving only elder and donuts.

Today, more than 100 PTO volunteers work on a haunted house and novelty games — such as the pumpkin toss and turtle races — which are part of the event which ran from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Hot dogs, cider and donuts and caramel apples were food for the day.

Adults began setting the fair up on Friday afternoon, getting ready for the more than 1,000 people who visit the fair each year.
