

Michigan Weavers show their works

Members of the Michigan Weavers Guild will have everything from handmade clothing and home accessories to baskets at their fifth annual show Thursday through Sunday, Nov. 6-9, at Orchard Mall of West Bloomfield. The 60 members meet on the third Thursday of the month at the Farmington Hills Library. The weavers themselves will be at the mall show to talk about the Guild and their work. At far right, Sue Waiton-Bigelow of Royal Oak models one of her jackets and holds another that has become very popular. At immediate right, Alice Fellow of Birmingham shows some of the items she will have at the show and sale. Orchard Mall is at Maple and Orchard Lake, West Bloomfield. Open free of charge during regular mall hours.

Musicale hosts piano program

The Farmington Musicales hosts three pianists at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 5, at the Farmington Community Library, 12 Mile west of Orchard Lake, Farmington Hills.

The three performers are Musicales members. Susan Nuckolls earned a degree in piano and music from the Detroit Institute of Musical Art. She is a student of Mischa Kotler. Her performance will include Debussy's Arabesque No. 1 and "Clair de lune" and Brahms's Rhapsody No. 2, Opus 79.

Alice Kosinski has been certified by the Michigan Music Teachers Association and has coached with Edith Davis of the Bendetson Netzer School of Piano. She will perform Chopin's Scherzo in B flat minor, Grande Valse Brillante, Opus 18 and "The Maiden's Wish."

Eleanor Peets, an accredited teacher with the National Music Teachers Association, has studied piano with Margaret Mannebach of the Detroit Institute of Musical Art and Jorge Bolet. Her portion of the program includes "Espana" — Peets, Juggler-Toch and Liszt's Rhapsody No. 2.

Baby-sitting is available.

Vocal auditions set

Birmingham Bloomfield Symphony Orchestra will hold auditions for soprano, alto, tenor and bass solo parts for the "Messiah," 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 8, at Cranbrook School band room, 500 Lone Pine, Bloomfield Hills.

Interested musicians should call the symphony office for an appointment to audition, 643-7288. Be prepared with solo part, accompanist will be present.

The performance will be on Sunday, Dec. 14, at Christ Church, Cranbrook.

Ehrling conducts DSO

Sixteen Ehrling, former music director of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, returns to conduct the musicians in three concerts featuring works by Prokofiev, Haydn and Respighi. This year marks the 25th anniversary of Ehrling's first performance with the DSO.

Performances are set for 8 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 6; 10:45 a.m. Friday, Nov. 7; and 8:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 8 in Ford Auditorium.

David Geringas, a cellist and protégé of Mstislav Rostropovich, will perform Haydn's Cello Concerto in D Major.

Also on the program are Prokofiev's Symphony No. 3 and Respighi's "Fest romane."

Thursday and Saturday's evening performances are sponsored by Kmart. The Friday Coffee Concert is sponsored by the National Bank of Detroit.

Ticket information is available by calling the Ford box office, 567-1400.

Beaux Arts Trio returns to area

Returning to Detroit after its 30th anniversary tour, the Beaux Arts Trio appears at 8 p.m. Wednesday, in Orchestra Hall, as part of the Chamber Music Society's 43rd consecutive season.

The concert features pianist Menahem Pressler, violinist Isidore Cohen and cellist Bernard Greenhouse performing Ravel's Trio in A Minor, Schubert's Trio No. 2 in E Flat Major, Opus 100 and a Haydn trio.

For tickets and more information, call Orchestra Hall box office, 833-3700.
