He said rumors were started by "people who momentarily want to make hay by spreading lies. I have a list of names but no proof." AT LEAST two nurses and one physician are on hand 24 hours a day and more are within calling distance, Cantor added.

Pernick said the turning Perrick said the turning joint in the controversy was a letter from Detroit Edison Co. to T.D. Driuman, chief county engineer, stating that utility lines across the hilly terrain at I-75 and Lapeer Rd. would create a hazard.

Initial cost of excavation and removal of the Edison lines has been estimated at $5.29 million.

"We were not given all the facts," Perrick said. We were told the lines could be lowered and placed underground, but we were given no accurate figures. The facts were hidden so we would buy
