ALL-AREA GIRLS FIRST TEAM

Karen Kantor, Churchill: Besides finishing fifth at the state meet (10:20), Kantor, a junior, was first in the WLAA meet, second at the Schoharie Invitational, fifth at the Gabriel Richard Invitational and ninth in the Ann Arbor state regional. She was an all-state selection. "She responds well to the challenge of the big meets," Charger coach Dave Westover said.

Janine Kloc, Ladywood: Kloc, a senior, rebounded after missing her entire junior season due to injury to win all-state, all-region (where she finished first) and all-Catholic League honors (second). She was an all-state selection. "She's a very consistent runner and has a strong leg speed which she can still improve."

Michelle Gayney, Redford Bishop Borgess: Spartan coach John McGrawy called Gayney "the fiercest competitor on our team." If she played football, she'd probably play middle linebacker. Gayney's only sophomore. She was 33rd at state (20:20), fourth at the Royal Oak Invitational regional and fourth in the Catholic League. She was an all-Catholic League two straight seasons.

Kelly Dooley, Borgess: Dooley finished her career as a Spartan by placing 30th at the state trials (20:13). The team captain was all-Catholic League. The last two seasons she placed fifth in the league meet and 10th in the 10-mile regional. Dooley also has a rare distinction: As a junior she competed in the state trials in three sports: cross country, track (3,200-meter relay) and volleyball (state runner-up).

Pauline Eldridge, Westland John Glenn: Eldridge's best races came at season's end. The senior team captain was 10th among individual runners and 10th overall at the regional and placed 32nd in the state individual race. Her season's best was 20:28 at the Westland Central. She ran a 20:17 at state.

Bonnie Stecker, Farmington: Stecker, a junior, broke the school record by running a 19:35. And she did it at the best of times — at the state team trials. Stecker was first in the city meet, third at both the WLAA meet and Schoharie Invitational and fifth at the Oakland County meet. At state she placed 27th.

Jennifer Kiel, Farmington: Kiel's 10:40 at the Ann Arbor regional was the team best until Stecker beat it at the state trials. Kiel, only a freshman, was fourth in the WLAA and at Schoharie, seventh at the regional and 10th in the county. "She's a terrific new talent with a bright future," coach John Barrett said.

Nicole Jelley, Farmington: Perhaps Jelley's greatest compliment is that, on a team of superior talent, she was captain three straight years. The senior was seventh at Schoharie, eighth at the Redford Union Invitational, 10th at the West Bloomfield Invitational and 65th at state in a season-best 20:25.

Tina Koons, Livonia Franklin: Park of Coach Dave Westover says no praise when speaking of his sophomore standout: "She is Franklin's best cross country runner ever." Koons was 17th at the Ann Arbor regional with a season-best 20:12 and placed 47th in the state individual race. She won seven of nine dual meets and ran under 21:00 six times.

Alice Jewell, North Farmington: Talk about a hectic schedule. Jewell, a senior, plays two sports for North — at the same time. She is on the swim team, too. Jewell was all-WLAA, finishing fifth in the league meet, and placed fifth at Schoharie. Her season-best time of 20:18 in the 10-mile regional. John Glenn dual meet, in which she placed first.

ALL-AREA BOYS FIRST TEAM

Chris Inch, Farmington: There were very few challenges left for Inch, a senior. He's a two-time all-state selection, won his regional race twice, was an all-American last year, twice won Oakland County meet and Schoharie Invitational and three times in the WLAA. Inch was consistent, running 15:40 at state and 15:43 at the regional. His attitude and outstanding desire to win, according to coach Jerry Young, make Inch's future just as bright as his past.

Dan Liedel, John Glenn: Liedel's only dual meet defeat came against Inch. The senior was first at both the Alpena and Livonia Franklin Invitational, third at Schoharie, fourth at the Redford Union Invitational, 10th overall in the regional (in individual race) and 29th overall at state (10th in individual race). His best times were 16:04 against Farmington and 16:08 at state.

Al Stebbins, Farmington: Despite a great season for the team, it was frustrating for Stebbins, a senior. Injuries forced him to miss six of 14 meets. Still, he finished fourth in the regional in a season-best 16:08 and was 20th at state (16:17). "He's one of the best runners we have ever had at Farmington," Young said.

Brandon London, Farmington: A junior, London was a transfer from Nebraska who is right in with the Falcons. His 16:19 at state was good for 23rd in the team race. He also finished second in the WLAA meet and displayed a toughness in the big meets. He'll be the backbone of Farmington's team next year.

Derrick Allen, Wayne Memorial: Allen's 23rd-in-the-state individual race capped a season of strong performances. The junior won the Eastern Michigan University Invitational and was on all-invitational teams at New Boston Huron, Schoharie, Wayne, Downriver and Wolverine A League.

Greg Boller, Catholic Central: Boller was CCC's most consistent runner. The junior was an all-Catholic League selection, running a season-best 16:31 at the latest invitational. He placed 70th in the state individual race in 17:10.

Bill Atwell, Plymouth Salem: Atwell, a junior, posted his best times of the season at the Blue Point 16:43 at the regional, 16:38 at the Pioneer Invitational and 16:21 at the state meet. An all-WLAA selection, Atwell finished 22nd in the individual race at state and was Salem's top runner all season.

Kevin Jones, Salem: The team captain and a senior, Jones was a valuable asset for the Falcons. His best performance of the season was in the state regional (16:52). He ran a 17:09 at the Pioneer Invitational and placed 64th in the state individual race with a 17:10.

Chris Hart, Farmington Harrison: Hart placed sixth in his Class B regional, was third at the Washtenaw Lake Invitational and took ninth at the Schoharie Invitational. A junior, he was named to the all-WLAA Western Division team, and he finished first five times in dual meets. At the Class B trials, Hart took 65th in the team race in 17:15.

Matt Smith, Bishop Borgess: Smith, a junior, finished in the top 10 in 10

meets this season. He was second at the Epitaph and Ypsilanti Invitational, fourth in Operation: Friendship, fifth in the Catholic League, sixth in the Dearborn Invitational and 10th in the regional. The all-Catholic League choice was 17th in the state individual race in a season-best 16:18.

Jerry Young and John Barrett, Farmington, Coaches of the Year: Who else? Young has built a dynasty of state winners with his boys program. He led them to a second-place state finish, the best in Farmington history. Barrett has built a state contender out of nothing in four years. Farmington didn't field a complete girls team four years ago and now they were Ho. G. in the state season.
