Bob Whiting

Bob Whiting, 14, has delivered the Observer in the Farmington Village Co-op subdivision since April 1984. The Farmington High School ninth grader's favorite subject is science. He placed second in a 1986 energy poster contest. His hobby is collecting baseball cards. He plans to attend college. Earning money to save and to buy what he wants are things he likes about his paper route. Dealing with people and learning responsibility are two skills Bob feels he has acquired. Bob is the son of Robert and Karen Whiting. He has two sisters, Amy, 13, and Julie, 17.

We don't wait for trouble,
we look for it
every day.

From the very young to the elderly, the homeless and the emotionally ill, there are people in your community who need help.

Your United Way seeks out problems that need solving and situations to step into before they become problems. Your gift to United Way does more things for more people who really need help than any other single gift you can give.

The United Way works to solve problems and thanks to you, it works for all of us.

WHERE THERE'S A NEED, THERE'S A WAY.
