Barbershoppers prepare 'A Not So Silent Night'

Sweet Adelines from Farmington Hills have merged with Sweet Adelines from several other metro area chapters to become "The Spirit of Detroit." The new chapter, under the direction of Sally Whitledge, announces itself with a show of Christmas spirit, barbershop style, called "A Not So Silent Night."

Curtain time is 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Dec. 5-6, in Mercy High School at the corner of 11 Mile and Middlebelt Road.

Featured artists are Jubilation, who won the 1985 Queens of Harmony award, Crystal Classics, 1986 regional quartet champions, and one of the most sought-after men's groups in the Detroit area, Harmony Unlimited.

The new chapter has 131 members representing two countries, five counties and 45 separate communities in the metro area. They rehearse at 7:30 p.m. Mondays in St. Francis Knights of Columbus Hall in Farmington Hills.

Visitors are always welcome to rehearsals, said membership chairman Betty Gerlach, who can be reached at 671-0489, or 676-0482, for information.

Whitledge comes to the new chapter with a background of 28 years in the Sweet Adeline association. She has coached both quartets and choruses locally and nationally.

Tickets for "A Not So Silent Night" are $8 each, available by calling Betty Canup, 356-0203.

Committee members for 'A Not So Silent Night' are Jill Pollard (at left), Rosemary Alexander, Pat Shuffler and Jo Gray.
