

THEATER IN AMERICA

200 Years of Plays, Players and Production. This... is a brilliant, richly detailed, and absorbing book chronicling two centuries of dramatic productions: in makeshift colonial playhouses and modern theaters-in-the-round; in showboats on the great rivers; on Broadway and off in prairie tents and in regional theaters nationwide.

$45.00GOLF COURSES OF THE PGA TOUR

This... is the perfect book for the TV golfer who wants to be completely informed about the pro circuit. The book is an armchair companion and ready reference for anyone who follows the sport of golfing.

$37.50COLONIAL WILLIAMSBURG

Now, in honor of its 60th anniversary, comes the most detailed, comprehensive book on Colonial Williamsburg ever produced. ...More than 300 dazzling photographs, most of them taken especially for this book by Langdon Clay, capture the spirit and seasonal beauty of the town.

$60.00THE ENCYCLOPAEDIA OF FASHION

From accordion pleats to zoot suits, from Chanel to Twiggy, from angora to Venetian Lace, in more than 1,000 informative entries this illustrated encyclopaedia covers the entire spectrum of the complex and fascinating world of fashion.

$27.50THE MAJESTIC WORLD OF ARABIAN HORSES

This first, lavish book about the Arabian horse celebrates one of the world's most ancient, noble, personable, and expensive animals.

$60.00ONE DAY USA

A Self-Portrait of America's Cities. At 12:01 A.M. on March 20, 1985, — the first day of spring — thousands of amateur and professional photographers in 200 American cities began to turn their cameras on their hometowns. Twenty-four hours later, they had created a one-day collective portrait of life in this country.

$35.00NOAH'S ARK

While the famous Dutch artist Rien Poortvliet was not present at the Flood, he is surely the person best qualified to narrate and depict this most wonderful of animal stories. The drama of NOAH'S ARK gives Poortvliet scope for all his talent, his imagination, his humor, and above all, his reverence for life.

$37.50FOOTBALL

Walter Iooss, former Sports Illustrated staff photographer, offers 20 years of his best pictures of the Autumn Spectacle — football — with its particular character and unique place in the American ethos. He and Dan Jenkins have put words and pictures together to reveal the camaraderie, the intensity, the rhythm of the game — from linemen in the trenches to the lonely striving of the passer: brilliant catches, crunching blocks, jolting tackles, and breezing runs all find focus in Iooss' lens. FOOTBALL, for the fan, the armchair quarterback, and the photography buff.

$29.95

bookpeople

Orchard Mall • West Bloomfield 851-9150
Mon.-Fri. 10-9, Sat. 10-6, Sun. 12-5.