recreation news

Each week, the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Division will present a synopsis of upcoming activities in this column. For more information about division programs, call the office at 474-6115. To discuss Farmington Hills City Council agenda items, call the division newsline: 476-3838.

ICE RINKS — If your community group or subdivision association is interested in building a natural ice rink for the upcoming winter season, contact our Parks Division at 473-9530. Upon confirmation of your interest, we will send a copy of the recommended procedures for your review. Prior to the flooding of the rink, a $25 fee is required.

DOWNHILL SKIING — Registration is being accepted for both sessions of the downhill ski program. Children in grades 4-12 are eligible to enjoy skiing at Mount Brighton on Friday evenings in three sessions. Session I will begin Jan. 9 and Session II Jan. 30. Fee is $38 per person per session and does not include ski rental. Buses will leave from designated sites at 4:30 p.m. and return approximately 10 p.m.

GIRLS BASKETBALL — A league for girls in grades 9-12 will be held Saturdays beginning Jan. 10 at Oakland Community College. Teams will play an eight-game schedule. Entry fee is $150 per team with registration deadline Dec. 19.

SPORTS SALE — Bargains are back for skates, downhill and cross country skis, ski clothing, sleds and other winter sports equipment. Equipment consignment dates are 5:30-8:30 p.m. Friday, Dec. 5, and 8:30-9:30 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 6. Sale of equipment will be from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 6. Join us at East Middle School, 25000 Middlebelt.

HOLIDAY FESTIVAL — From 6:30-8:30 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 10, the Northwest Therapeutic Recreation Association is sponsoring the Seventh Annual Holiday Festival. The Holiday Festival includes dancing, entertainment, door prizes, dinner, and Santa Claus. Pre-registration fee is $3 per person, or $4 per person at the door. For more information, call 858-1441.

TALENT NIGHT — The community is welcomed to enjoy an evening of entertainment by handicapped individuals in a non-competitive setting. The Talent Night Show will be held at Oakland Community College, Building H, from 7-8:30 p.m. Dec. 12. Come and support their talents.

● DEAN'S LIST

Cheryl Dickow of Farmington Hills was named to the dean's list at the University of Michigan-Dearborn.

Paul Amendt of Farmington Hills was named to the dean's list at Kalamazoo College.

● COOPERATIVE WORK

Two students from Farmington Hills are employed by area firms this fall in a cooperative work experience arranged by Oakland University.

Susan Dahl, computer engineering/electrical engineering, works at Detroit Edison. Lisa Sabbe, computer engineering, works at General Dynamics.

Surveys show firms prefer to hire full-time employees who have actual work experience during their undergraduate careers. Oakland University juniors and seniors who take part often go on to accept permanent employment with 50 area firms.

● EARNS SCHOLARSHIP

John James Pickens of Farmington Hills received a $5,000 scholarship from Western Reserve College at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland.

He is a Farmington High School graduate.

● HONORS CONVOCATION

The traditional Kalamazoo College Honors Convocation recognized two students from Farmington Hills for outstanding achievement.

Laura Livingston, sophomore, was given the Theatre and Communication Arts Department Award for excellence in course work in theater and communication arts in the freshman year.

Surendar Purohit, sophomore, was awarded the Freshman Chemistry Award for great achievement in chemistry in the freshman year.
