Wednesday, the eastern wing was in flames.
The asphalt roof and the eastern wall collapsed in the fire, making it difficult to extinguish a burning oil vat underneath, said Lt. Peter Baldwin of the Farmington Hills Fire Department.
"There were a lot of oils and lubricants in storage drums and involved with the machinery that also burned," Baldwin said.

It took about 2 1/2 hours to extinguish the fire, Baldwin added, noting the building was not sprinklered.
This marked the first major fire in the company's 15-year history at the site. Forge Die & Tool is owned by Southfield resident John Kehlikian.
