

Sprucing

PTA drawing continues

Sale of tickets for the PTA-sponsored G.V. Harrison Scholarship Program fund-raiser will continue through Dec. 19, when the final drawing will occur, according to organizers.

A total of 400 tickets at $25 each are being sold. The Parent/Teacher Association fund-raiser offers a first prize of $2,000, second prize of $1,000, third prize of $500 and six fourth prizes of $100 each. Three winners were already selected in the group's early bird drawings.

This year's drawing is expected to finance the group's scholarship program for the next three years, organizers said.

The program, in effect for more than 20 years, has offered more than 90 high school students from the Farmington area college scholarships. Organizers said if the drawing is successful, the dollar amounts of each scholarship could also be increased.

Sponsored by the Farmington Area PTA Council, the group's scholarship committee looks for a student with community involvement who is well-rounded and who has a scholarship need.

Those interested in purchasing tickets can call 478-1758.
