

recreation news

Each week, the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Division will present a synopsis of upcoming activities in this column. For more information about division programs, call the office, 474-6115. To discuss Farmington Hills City Council agenda items, call the division newsline: 476-3353.

ICE RINKS — If your community group or subdivision association is interested in building a natural ice rink for the upcoming winter season, contact our Parks Division, 473-9530. Upon confirmation of your interest, we will send a copy of the recommended procedures for your review. Prior to the flooding of the rink, a $25 fee is required.

DOWNHILL SKIING — Registration is being accepted for both sessions of the downhill ski program. Children in grades 4-12 are eligible to enjoy skiing at Mount Brighton on Friday evenings in three sessions. Session I will begin Jan. 9 and Session II Jan. 30. Fee is $35 per person per session and does not include ski rental. Buses will leave from designated sites at 4:30 p.m. and return at approximately 10 p.m.

NORTHPOLE HOTLINE — Santa Claus and Mrs. Claus are coming to town Tuesday, Dec. 16, to call Farmington-area children between the 4:30 and 8 p.m. Flyers have been distributed through area schools to return to the recreation office at 31555 11 Mile, c/o Santa Claus, or can be placed in Santa's special mailbox at Tally Hall, 31005 Orchard Lake Road or in front of the Farmington Chamber of Commerce, 33201 Grand River. Letters must be received by Monday, Dec. 15. Let Santa or Mrs. Claus wish you a happy holiday.

TALENT NIGHT — The community is welcomed to enjoy an evening of entertainment by handicapped individuals in a non-competitive setting. The Talent Night Show will be held from 7-8:30 p.m. Dec. 12 at Oakland Community College, Building 11.

SKI SEMINAR — An informative panel of experienced cross country skiers will speak from 7-9 p.m. today at the Farmington Hills Library, 22737 12 Mile Road. They will cover the type of equipment to purchase, waxing techniques, appropriate clothing and other related subjects. There is no fee when attending. This seminar is co-sponsored with the Oakland County Parks and Recreation Commission.

COMMUNITY CHORUS — The sounds of the holidays will be in the air Dec. 12 and 13 at 8 p.m., as the Farmington Hills Community Chorus concert "Home for the Holidays" is presented at Harrison High School, 29995 W. 12 Mile. Tickets for the concert can be purchased at the door. Admission is $3.50 for adults and $2.50 for students and senior adults.

PLYMOUTH ICE SCULPTURE — This annual event in the city of Plymouth is waiting for you. The tour will leave Farmington Hills City Hall at 11:30 a.m. and travel to the Hillside Inn for a lunch of the stuffed, boneless breast of chicken with Marsala wine sauce, rice pilaf, bread basket and beverage. With the conclusion of lunch, you can observe the abundant and beautiful sculptures that have been carved from ice in downtown Plymouth. Fee is $14 per person and includes lunch and transportation. Registration deadline is Friday, Jan. 2.
